2005 FALL HOMECOMING AT P.H.S. WAS A BLAST

Paulding High School Homecoming Spirit Week Participants

By: David Brown

Homecoming week at Paulding High School (September 19th - 23rd) was a blast! Students were very enthusiastic to participate in the activities.

The week started off on Monday with 80's day. Students dressed up in their favorite 80's attire. In the evening students played He-Man Volleyball. The guys all came out to play a small volleyball tournament. The senior guys went undefeated.

Tuesday was Thrift Store day. Students dressed up in their "thrifty" clothes from Goodwill and other secondhand stores. At 7:00 p.m. was Powder Puff football. The girls always want their chance to play football, so they got to play a game of touch football. Some girls were upset that it was only touch football. A lot of them were ready to tackle.

Wednesday was Senior Citizens Day. Students dressed up in their "old people" clothes. Students put on their grandparents' clothing, stuffed with pillows, and powdered their hair to give them an "old person" look. There were no activities after school Wednesday evening.

Thursday was Duct Tape Day. Students taped up an outfit, and some even made an outfit completely out of duct tape.

The Spirit Carnival was from 7 – 9 P.M. Students and teachers alike brought in their quarters to play games, win prizes, and just have some fun.

Student Council had a Spirit Balloon sale. The cost for a balloon and a paw was $1.00. The balloons were used to help decorate the football field for the homecoming game. Everyone who purchased a balloon had his or her name entered in a drawing to win a quarter of the money that was made from the sale. The drawing was held Thursday night at the Spirit Fun Carnival.

Friday was Spirit Day, also known as Maroon and White Day. Students and teachers put on their school colors to show off their Panther Pride. The cheerleaders made an excellent display of support by adorning the hallways with streamers and signs. They also hosted a pep assembly at 1:50 p.m. in the high school gym where Coach Messick made an enthusiastic speech.

Friday after school, the Athletic Boosters Chicken BBQ Dinner was held from 4-6 p.m. The Homecoming Parade began at 6:30, and the game followed against the Allen East Mustangs. The Panthers stomped the Mustangs 39-21.

Saturday night was the homecoming dance. The dance was held from 8-11 p.m. Music was provided by Sound Trek D.J. Students had a blast as they danced the night away.

"ASK YOUR WATER EX-PERT"

By Todd K. Cook, vour water expert H2O to Go®

Q: How do I know if I need a Sediment Filter?

A: Your public water authority does the best it can to ensure that your water is free of disease causing pathogens and sediment. However, it cannot ensure that your water is free of sediment after passing through the series of distribution lines to reach your home. Virtually all private well water supplies contain sediment. Therefore, a dirt/ rust filter is advisable on the incoming water line. A simple clear sump dirt/rust filter can protect washers and seals from premature wear, it can prevent aerators and valves from plugging and keep your hot water heater from collecting excessive sediment. Submit a water related question to West Bend Printing in care of "Ask your water expert" and it may be used in an upcoming issue.

OAKWOOD TOWN COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES

A regular council meeting was held on 9/26/05. Those attending were EMS coordinator Ron Eakins, Fire chief Greg Landers, Village Administrator John Keyes and Bill Sherry of Paulding Progress.

After the Pledge, the clerk took roll call. All council members were present except for Bill Baker as he is attending Paramedic classes. Mayor Henke presided over the meeting.

Phil made a motion to accept the minutes as previously mailed, Don seconded. All in favor. Don made a motion to pay the bills, Marty seconded, all in favor.

On the EMS side Ron Eakins discussed the possibility of a rescue unit that could be utilized for all kinds of disasters. He will continue to look at all kind of options and discuss further with council at a later date.

He mentioned that the cost would be around $20,000 for the unit. The trailer would cost an additional $11,335. The total cost would be approximately $31,335. This would be taken from the EMS fund of 2005 and 2006 if so approved.

Ron mentioned that he would like to have the approval of council to head up an "on call for disaster team". For purposes of situations as hurricanes, tornadoes or other disasters that may need assistance. This would be a good thing to have to help other communities if ever needed. The mayor would like to have Ron to put a list together of "qualified" persons to be appointed to the team and present back to council.

On the fire side, Greg Landers mentioned that the turnout gear will be arriving in approximately 45 days for the department. This will be covered by a FEMA grant that they obtained. Greg is to get with the clerk for paperwork completion.

The village administrator, John Keyes presented council with a report of jobs in process and or completed. He mentioned that he received a letter from the Ohio EPA stating the compliance inspection was completed and was rated very good. The Three Cell Lagoon System was operating well. There was some large trees and other large plants that needed to be removed on the embankments. The rest was well maintained. John mentioned that he has made arrangements for the completion of the clean up to be done in the near future.

The cleaning of the aerators was completed. The balls were replaced by a tube type of system. This was done due to the deterioration of the balls and the expense it was costing to upkeep of the system. Since everything has been replaced and cleaned, the system is running more efficiently. They are now averaging 70 to 59 thousand gallons per day compared to 90-120 thousand gallons per day. The chlorine intake is down and everything seems to be much better.

The mayor mentioned that he is sending a warrant out to the owner of the house on the corner of Main and Second Street for not complying with order. He will advise council of details. The Cornerstone Church is interested in purchasing the lot, but not sure of what has transpired between the two parties.

The Mayor mentioned that Phil Stucky has mentioned his concern with the Shisler Camping area. He mentioned that he knows that Jim has added at least four more camping areas. The mayor will contact Jim Shisler and discuss the matter with him. He will advise council at a later date.

Mayor Henke also mentioned that the ball park committee is being appointed. He has two members and will be contacting two more possible members to fill the board for 2006.

Under new business Don Adams mentioned that the election board is combining the precinct (Oakwood, Melrose, and Brown Township). The voting location will be at the American Legion. The election board is requesting that a few things need to be done to make it handicap accessible. The village administrator and Don will see that the procedures are complete for the voting process.

The Halloween for Oakwood has been scheduled for October 31st from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and judging will begin at 7:30 at the school.

Leeann made a motion to transfer $10,000 to the street fund from the general fund, Don seconded, all in favor.

Phil made a motion for Jay Klopfenstein to attend a three day seminar for the police department, Marty seconded all in favor.

The clerk advised council that the village is being audited from a firm from Cleveland they will be receiving notification from the firm, if they haven't yet. The audit is for the years of 2003 and 2004. The Audit procedures are handled a little different than in the past as they took files to the office in Cleveland instead of doing audit at office. The other difference is that the audit is being done by an independent audit firm verses the state auditors as done in the past. The firm will have the audits up through 2008.

Don made a motion to adjourn, Marty seconded, all in favor.

ANTWERP HISTORY

By: Stan Jordan/Sue Knapp

Boland's Blacksmith Shop, owned by Frank and his son, Ken, sat where the H & W sits now.

They could make anything you want. Frank drove a school bus that he constructed himself. H & W came in after the blacksmith shop closed. Leo Headly and Ken Wittig started it up. Starr Levy manages the store today.

Before the automobile, deliveries were made by horse and buggy or dray wagons.

Sam Sunday delivered groceries in a covered buggy. Lou Ours had a horse and wagon and delivered coal and cobs. He would drive down the street singing church songs at the top of his voice. A man named Wilson had a team of horses and a dray wagon. He lived on the east end of Woodcox Street. At that time that area was called Poverty Hill.

In the 20's and 30's a red livery stable sat where the Fire House sits now. Ike and Bill Boyce owned the livery. The livery stable became a tomato factory for 2-3 seasons before the war in the mid-thirties. After the war, the building became a storage place for county highway equipment. There were three houses next to the livery. Arth Barnhart's house, next to the livery, caught fire and burnt down. The fire also burnt the livery down. The EMS building stands where Arth's house stood and 3 condos stands beside the EMS building.

In 1957, Bob Johnson and Virge Meyers decided to build a bowling alley on the empty lot across from St. Mary's. It was the first full size alley in the area for years. The alleys in the next closest towns only had 2 lanes. Bob and Virge ran the bowling alley until 1993 when they sold it. Marie and Phil Bauer are the present owners. They have renovated it and it is a high tech bowling alley now.

St. Mary's Church, the Rectory, and the Catholic School sat beside each other. The school closed in 1933 and the students transferred to Antwerp Local School.

Two men by the names of Reid and Murdock owned a tomato dock where the St. Mary's Center now sits. The farmers would bring tomatoes to the dock where they were transferred to South Whitley, IN. Robert Keirns managed the tomato dock. The dock was used until after WWII. St. Mary's rectory was erected after the dock closed.

The Antwerp Volunteer Fire Department held New Year's Parties for the public for years at the Center. The parties included square dancing. The New Years parties went on until the insurance costs got too high.

Back to Main Street – In the early 30's the Ice Cream Depot was where cream and milk was collected. Bill and Dema Miller managed it. A drive on scales sat beside the building. Does anyone know what the scales were used for? Many businesses occupied the building before Ken and Doris opened the Ice Cream Depot. The depot is now owned by Eric and LeeAnn Walk.

Next week we'll talk about the train depot that sets out on 24

Last week's article talked about Antwerp's furniture factory. I was told about 2 pieces of furniture that came from the factory. I will follow up on the pieces and let you know the history of them in future issues.

PHS VARSITY VOLLEYBALL TEAM WINS FIRST NWC MATCH

By: Brice Rios

The varsity volleyball team won its match last evening against Delphos Jefferson Wildcats for their first NWC wins of the season. It was an exciting five games with the scores 23-25; 24-26; 25-19; 25-21, and 15-11.

Some of the leaders of the Lady Panthers are Ashley Clark, Danielle Dangler, Tiffany Razo, Kelsey Adams, Megan Roughton, and Rachelle Farley.

The Lady Panthers are tough and aggressive. There is a lot of talent on the varsity team. Seniors who lead this team to victory are Kelsey Adams, Danielle Dangler, Megan Roughton, Malerie Klingler, Rachelle Farley, Jen Arend and Sarah Mott.

There is also young talent coming up from the junior varsity team from: Jessica Carnahan, Kelsie Carnahan, Brooke Mehring, and Kayla Gawronski. This promises to be a good team in the near future.

Next year the varsity team will lose several seniors. They will still be strong, however, with the up-coming junior varsity leaders.

Coach Parrett says: "This year's varsity squad is full of promise. We have numerous leaders on the team and incredible athletic talent. We are looking forward to a winning record and a top finish in sectionals."

The walk, a two weekend event, will be held in the upper part of the Masonic building, which is located on Main Street by Red Angel Pizza. Use of the building was donated by Oley McMichael. We would like to thank Oley for his generosity.

Among some of the many things you will see in this year's walk are a haunted hallway, a spooky graveyard, the haunted barber chair, and a spider room. Also, this year we will be serving refreshments, such as donut holes, hot dogs, hot chocolate, pop and coffee.

The walk will be open the first weekend on Saturday, October 22, from 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m., and Sunday, October 23 from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. The following weekend, the walk will be open Friday, October 28, from 9:00 p.m. to 12 midnight, and Saturday, October 29, from 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. There is a small cost per person at the door. The parents of the junior class hope to see you there!

GILLMOR CALLS ON SU-PREME COURT TO AFFIRM PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Congressman Paul E. Gillmor (R- Old Fort) today voted for a House Resolution calling on the U.S. Supreme Court to find the use of the Pledge of Allegiance in America's schools to be consistent with the Constitution of the United States. H.Con.Res. 245 overwhelmingly passed the House by a vote of 383 to 31.

Once again, activist judges in California are interfering with our way of life," Gillmor said. "This is the second time in three years that federal judges in California have attempted to legislate from the bench at the cost of the Pledge of Allegiance. I think the overwhelming vote of support today by the U.S. House shows that there is little support for the judges' actions and even little support for their attack on America's values," Gillmor said.

Most recently, Judge Lawrence Karlton from the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California ruled that the use of "under God" in the Pledge of Allegiance violated the rights of children to be "free from a coercive requirement to affirm God." Judge Karlton felt bound by the precedent of the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals which ruled the pledge unconstitutional.

"The California rulings run counter to a ruling in Virginia and require that the Supreme Court involve itself in this issue at its earliest convenience," Gillmor said. "Since 1954, the children of our nation have recited the Pledge, complete with the words 'under God,' in deference to our nation, our fallen patriots and a belief in our republic. It is not up to unelected judges in California to overrule the will of the American people to continue a tradition which serves to reinforce the morals inherent in our society," Gillmor concluded.

In the Resolution passed today, the U.S. House calls on the U.S. Supreme Court "at the earliest opportunity" to resolve the conflict between the Court of Appeals in California and Virginia and confirm the importance of constitutionality of reciting the Pledge of Allegiance in America's schools. On Flag Day, 1954, President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed legislation to add the words "under God" to the Pledge of Allegiance. At that time, President Eisenhower said, "In this way we are reaffirming the transcendence of religious faith in America's heritage and future; in this way we shall constantly strengthen those spiritual weapons which forever will be our country's most powerful resource in peace and war.'

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY HOUSE DEDICATED

Al Leininger presents Donna and Harley Miller with a Bible and a book of life skills written by the founder of Habitat for Humanity during the dedication.

Habitat for Humanity held a dedication Saturday, Oct. 1, for the house built in Antwerp owned by Donna Miller. Part of the board members was there to support Donna and talk about the Habitat for Humanity organization. The members present was Amy Haines, Jan Commers, Mark Stoller, Karen Fetter, and Al Leininger.

The ground was broken for the house in July of 2004. The house was completed in December of that year and Donna and Harley were able to move in around Christmas time.

To qualify for a Habitat house you must fill out an application and come within the income criteria, but be able to make a house payment. The loans are no interest for 20 years. You must also provide 250 hours of labor helping to build your house or another Habitat house. Donna is now on the board and is committed to helping other people in getting a house.

Habitat for Humanity runs on monetary donations and sweat from volunteers. They also receive memorials. All the appliances are donated by Whirlpool and the businesses in the community and surrounding area

Royal Neighbors The of Antwerp started off with a monetary donation, churches in the community and surrounding community provided the meals and also helped with the labor in building the house. Randy Wise donated the time and labor for the custom built counter tops and cabinets. He along with Al Leininger worked on the walls and the electrical in the house. The Habitat doesn't provide garages for their houses. Donna's dad donated the money to build a garage and the Rotary Club of Antwerp put it up along as well as helped with other projects dealing with the house. There were many neighbors and friends helping to make this happen for Donna and Harley.

All through the project Donna has felt blessed. Donna and Harley lived in a house trailer in the Leinard Trailer Park. Because of this project Donna was able to give her trailer to a lady who needed housing before winter set in.

Habitat for Humanity has built over 500,000 houses worldwide. The next Habitat house in this area will be built in Melrose for the Joe and Maggie Guyton family. If you would like to know more about Habitat for Humanity or would like to donate time or money you can contact them at 419-399-3848 or go to their web-site at www.habitatpc.com.

IT'S TIME FOR FISCAL RESTRAINT

In the wake of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, our nation has been put under considerable fiscal pressure. Private citizens have opened their hearts and their pocketbooks to help the victims affected by these natural disasters and Congress is providing the additional emergency resources necessary to rebuild. Cleanup efforts are underway and officials from the federal government are working around-the-clock with state and local officials to bring normalcy to our displaced neighbors.

Immediately following Hurricane Katrina, Congress approved $62 billion in emergency funding for FEMA, the Army Corps of Engineers, temporary housing and the movement of nearly 60,000 military troops into the effected region. In this case, funding the hurricane relief efforts has become a priority and a duty of the federal government. However, as the price tag for recovery efforts continues to increase, the time has come for a discussion of how to pay the bill.

The fact is, almost everv year since the founding of these United States, our government has lived beyond its means. To date, every American citizen has nearly $27,000 in public debt riding on our backs. This debt comes from more than two centuries of using our federal credit card to pay for programs and incentives which we could not otherwise afford. Today, as a result of these devastating hurricanes, we may add as much as another $200 billion to our national debt. The time has come for us to close our nation's wallet, reverse our deficit spending and treat the government's budget like we would our own.

Spending on programs such as national defense and funding the operating budgets of all federal agencies represent only 39 percent of our yearly budget, an all-time low. Conversely, mandatory spending on programs such as Medicare, Medicaid and Social Security now account for more than 61 percent of our national budget. Healthcare costs are rising, we are living much longer and in the near future, millions of baby boomers will retire. These strains will push the cost of entitlement programs like Medicare and Social Security even higher, further escalating our nation's funding woes. The only way to reduce our expenses and reverse deficit spending is by reevaluating the programs which we as Americans have come to expect. These are not decisions which can be made lightly and they are not decisions which should be made as knee-jerk reactions to natural disasters. We must instead agree as a nation to reassess our long-term goals and fund only those priorities which remain crucial to our people. I am confident that residents of the Fifth District understand the need for financial independence from our national debt and the hard decisions which come with this lofty and necessary goal.

KATRINA AFFECTS STUDENTS AT PAULDING

By: Brice Rios

Hurricane Katrina hit the Gulf of Mexico on Monday, August 29 at record force winds of 150 mph. Thousands of family members wait for reports from loved ones.

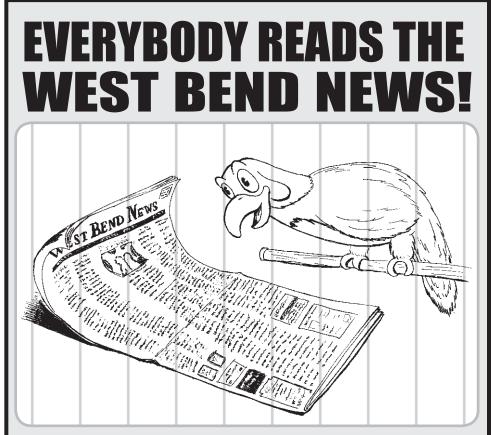

Anxious family members wait to hear good news from relatives in New Orleans and Mississippi. Some may have to wait for many weeks due to downed power lines and massive flooding.

One of these is a senior here at PHS, Tim Heigess. At the time of this printing, he has not heard from his mother who is from Slidell, Louisiana. His Internet search has been unsuccessful, but he is still persistent in his efforts to locate her. People all over the world are trying to help the people affected by the devastating storm.

PHS students are feeling the effects of this at the gas pumps. Many students have opted to ride a bike or ride the school bus rather than pay the big bucks for gas.
