

BE A HERO THIS MONTH BY GIVING BLOOD IN PAULDING COUNTY

To some, a hero may be a school teacher who taught them how to read, a stranger who changed their tire in pouring rain or a grandparent who provided their favorite childhood memory. Heroes are heroes for different reasons and come in many forms, but all see a need and act accordingly. At the American Red Cross, we are fortunate to see heroes every day.

A hero is the volunteer who leaves their home in the middle of the night to make sure needs are met when a local family loses their home in a house fire or the person who rolls up their sleeves to help save lives by giving blood. A hero also includes the American Red Cross.

LOCAL STUDENTS QUALIFY FOR PRESTIGIOUS IPFW SCHOLARSHIPS

Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne (IPFW) recently announced four Antwerp students qualified for the IPFW Chancellor's Merit Award. The scholarship enables out-of-state students to attend IPFW at in-state costs for tuition and fees and is renewable for four years.

Rebecca Goudy will study pre-radiography.

Tadjena Cordero will study medical technology.

Sarah Dix will study psychology.

Darcy Weible will study pre-nursing.

For more information, contact Suzanne Echtenkamp, admissions operations assistant, at 260-481-6141 or echtenka@ipfw.edu.

CORRECTION

In last week's paper, we mistakenly overlooked a misspelling in the wedding announcement for Ashley Gardner and Harrison William Messmann. The correct spelling for Messmann is with two "n's" and not one.

We apologize to the family for our mistake!

GROUNDBREAKING SET FOR BRAND NEW SKILLED NURSING FACILITY IN PAULDING

Plans have been announced for a groundbreaking celebration June 26 at 1:00 p.m. to commemorate the start of construction on a new skilled nursing home facility to serve Paulding and the surrounding area.

The facility, which is being developed by the current owners of Hawthorn Court, will be known as The Gardens of Paulding and is slated to open in the spring of 2008. It will feature 50 Medicare/Medicaid certified skilled nursing beds offering long-term care and rehabilitation services. In addition, the new facility will provide 27 units dedicated to assisted living.

The facility is being developed on County Road 103, north of the Calvary Bible Church, and just across the street from the Hawthorn Court facility, which is located at 1017 W. Wayne Street.

The groundbreaking ceremony is planned to feature several local officials, developers of the facility and honorary guests including two current residents of Hawthorn Court who are each 101 years old.

Following the groundbreaking, the public is invited to attend a reception in the lobby of Hawthorn Court where they can learn more about the planned new facility and share in light refreshments.

Hawthorn Court is a skilled nursing and rehabilitation center, managed by Peregrine Health Services, Inc., that has served the Paulding area since 1973. For more information, visit their web site at hawthorn-court.com.

Happy Birthday!

You probably remember some of the stories he has told. Sometimes it's called "Antwerp History" and we all wonder how much "history" there is. The fish do get larger with each telling, but hey, it's great and never gets old!

This young man turns 83 today. Be sure to wish him a Happy Birthday.

Natural Skin Care

(NAPSA)—The skin is your body's largest organ—and all people, young and old, active or not, need to take care of it. The good news is you don't have to spend big bucks to nurture the skin you're in.

For instance, something as simple as using goat's milk soap and lotions can make a difference in the look and feel of skin. The milk has been used in skin care for centuries (Cleopatra is said to have bathed in it), and its unique molecular structure makes it an ideal moisturizer. Goat's milk soaps such as Canus Goat's Milk Soap with Marigold Oil and Orchid Oil even include natural ingredients to help soothe itchy skin and increase skin immunity. The Goat's Milk Lotion was developed to bring the natural moisturizing properties of fresh goat's milk to a body lotion. To learn more, visit www.canusgoatsmilk.com.

The soaps, which also have anti-inflammatory properties, are available in fragranced and fragrance-free versions—and the 5-ounce bar is triple milled for hardness, making it longer lasting. You can find the soap in stores and online at drugstore.com, cvs.com and amazon.com.

WORSHIP WITHOUT WALLS IS BACK

If you missed it the first time around, don't you fret. Because on Sunday July 1 at 10:00 a.m. on the east lawn of the First Financial Bank in Payne, we're getting together and doing it again! We're "taking the church to where the people are."

Everyone had a real blast at the first Worship Without Walls on Sunday June, 3. We had a great time. One-A-Chord kicked it all off, and just rocked the town of Payne with the sounds of praise and worship music. We heard a message of the grace of God and free gift that He's given all of us in His Son Jesus. Then we all stuck around and enjoyed the time of free food and fellowship.

Remember, it doesn't matter how old you are or how young you are. We don't care how you dress, or if you know the words to the songs by heart. Just come as you are, bring your lawn chairs or beach blankets and come hang out with us.

We'd love the chance to meet you for the first time or get the pleasure of seeing you again, and hang out with you for awhile. But, be ready to hear, see, and feel how much Jesus Christ loves you. Bring a friend or a loved one, you can bring someone you don't even like and come on out, we'll see you on the lawn at Worship Without Walls, Sunday July 1, at 10:00 a.m.

Our next scheduled date is Sunday, August 5.

TIPS ON TRIPS

No More Car Sickness

(NAPSA)—As any parent can tell you, a family road trip usually involves one or more kids saying, "Are we there yet?" or "Can we stop? I feel sick."

While you may have to find a good answer for the first question, a new wristband may provide the answer to preventing the second.

The FDA has approved an acupressure wristband from Sea-Band for the relief of nausea that is a drug-free solution for travel sickness. No drugs means there are none of the side effects associated with anti-nausea products, such as drowsiness.

If you're taking your kids on vacation in the car, there's no need for medication. Brightly colored wristbands have been approved for nausea relief.

The knitted, elasticized wristbands apply pressure on the acupressure point of each wrist. Clinically tested and reusable, the bands work immediately and can be worn at the onset of nausea.

In kid-friendly colors of orange, green and yellow, the bands are packed in an easily accessible small plastic case and are available in major drugstores. For more information, visit www.sea-band.com.

Keep the news coming. News is always free. Let your friends, neighbors and community know what's going on!

YOUR GARDEN

Enjoy Your Lawn All Season Long

by John Buechner

(NAPSA)—It's time to be one with nature again. The following tips can help homeowners have the grass greener on their side of the fence:

Watering

• Water deep and often. Most lawns need about an inch of water a week. If you're unsure how long to water, mark one inch from the bottom of several see-through containers and spread them around the lawn. Clock the time it takes to reach the one-inch mark and water for that length of time in the future.

• While water may be applied anytime of day, morning watering is most effective.

Mowing

• Before mowing, be sure the mower blade is sharp to prevent tearing the grass blades.

• Raise the mower to a high setting, so you only remove the top one-third of the grass blade.

• Change the mowing direction each time to keep coarse grasses under control and ensure an even surface.

Grasscycling

• Leave clippings when you mow. The grass clippings will recycle nutrients back into the soil and they don't contribute to thatch buildup.

Thatching

• If your lawn gets soft and spongy, you likely have thatch—dead roots caused by improper mowing, overwatering or fertilizing.

• A little thatch is okay (no more than half an inch) but too much can cause problems.

• To control thatch, ask a lawn care specialist about aeration

By following a few simple tips, you and your family can enjoy spending time in your yard all season long.

and pH balancing.

Weeding

• For a lush lawn, control weeds and unwanted plants with special applications and appropriate treatments.

• Wait for weeds to die, clear out dead foliage and reseed the bare patches as soon as the treatment directions allow.

If you're following these tips and your lawn still isn't up to par, you may want to dig a little deeper. Contact a lawn care specialist for a soil test to analyze the makeup of your soil and possibly identify the causes of a less-than-perfect lawn.

PAULDING COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

The Paulding County Commissioners met in regular session on Wednesday, June 6, Wednesday June 13 and Monday, June 18, 2007. The Commissioners also met in special session on Friday, June 8 to conduct routine business such as approving bills for payment. The special session was necessary as the Commissioners attended their annual Summer Conference of the County Commissioners Association of Ohio (CCAO) on Monday June 11 and Tuesday, June 12.

The June 6 session included the monthly report from the Paulding County Board of Elections. The Elections Board and staff continue to work to meet the requirements of the Help America Vote Act (HAVA.) HAVA is the federal law mandating new equipment, procedures and security. These requirements are not funded and cause local officials to determine how to become compliant and how to pay for the costs.

At the same meeting Travis McGarvey, Paulding County Engineer, also provided a monthly update on activities. McGarvey reported the bridge on CR 171 over the Flat Rock Creek is now open. The state line project between 114 and US 30 is complete. He also noted that CR 224 will soon be closed permanently due to US 24 construction.

The Commissioners attended the Summer Conference of the County Commissioners Association of Ohio (CCAO) on June 11 and 12. The Lucas County Commissioners hosted the conference. Workshops included topics about state funding programs, Ohio's new minimum wage law and updates on state legislation.

The Wednesday, June 13 session included a meeting with the Defiance County Commissioners regarding joint ditches. Although most ditches are located within the boundaries of one county there are drainage ditches and surrounding land that cross over county lines. Called joint ditches it is necessary for the Commissioners of both counties to meet to review and agree on the assessment and maintenance assessments that apply to the landowners who own land that gain advantage due to the ditch drainage. The joint ditches reviewed at the meeting were Arend Joint, Carry-all Tile, Forrest Joint, Gordon Creek Joint, Hook Joint and Plumley Joint. Ditches are commonly named years ago or after a person involved in the original petition to clean the ditch. Assessments for the maintenance of a cleaned ditch are added to the tax bills of the property owners.

Gary Adkins, of the Paulding County Hospital, met with the Commissioners to share that the hospital Board of Trustees are considering possible actions due to underutilization of the obstetrics unit at the hospital. The obstetrics unit is creating a loss center for the hospital and the Board of Trustees is reviewing several possibilities for the unit.

Lou Ann Wannemacher, Paulding County Treasurer, presented a draft proposal for updated software for the real estate assessment records. The current hardware and software system is old enough that it will no longer be supported by the supplier after December 31, 2008. Wannemacher and Susan Simpson, Paulding County Auditor, have developed specifications for the updates. Simpson and Wannemacher have met with several possible providers to learn about their products. They have also consulted with other northwest Ohio counties who have already begun or even completed the process of updating the software. A special fund, created by the state, provides dollars for annual property updates as well as the three year and six year reappraisals. However, this funding program was created long before the advent of computer technology and may not fully provide funding for the upgrades. Simpson and Wannemacher are working to insure that adequate funds are available for the successful provider. Following the presentation the Commissioners approved the advertising for the updated software.

During the Monday, June 18 meeting, Lou Ann Wannemacher presented her monthly investment report. Wannemacher uses the state operated Star Ohio program and one year certificates of deposit for investments. Wannemacher also judges the daily need for a cash balance and keeps that amount available for expenses.

As always, citizens with questions are encouraged to contact the appropriate office for information. The Commissioners' office is available for assistance in deciding which county office to contact with questions.

The Paulding County Commissioners meet in regular session from 8:00 a.m. to the close of business on Mondays and Wednesdays.

PAULDING CURVES COLLECTS ITEMS FOR OVERSEAS SOLDIERS

The Paulding Curves recently collected items for our soldiers serving overseas. Members donated food, gum, powder, hygiene items and many other necessities. The drive ran from Memorial Day to June 15 and the care packages were shipped on June 20.

Our Curves members were very generous with their donations and we know that our soldiers will be grateful for the items. Paulding Curves members Rock! "It's great to be at Curves!"

AMERICA'S HEROES

Iraq Injuries Highlight Advances In Prosthetics

(NAPSA)—Hundreds of American soldiers have returned from fighting in Iraq and Afghanistan as amputees, with more than 100 having lost multiple limbs. Fortunately, dramatic improvements in prosthetics are restoring mobility and productivity to these injured heroes.

Some of these innovations include:

• Microprocessor knees—the standard for U.S. soldiers in need of a lower-limb prosthesis. They make hundreds of calculations per minute to adapt to a user's gait; and

• Targeted muscle re-innervation (TMR), which reroutes nerve signals in an amputee's residual limb, allowing him or her to "feel" and sense movement in the artificial limb.

"The Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs have led the way with a huge commitment of resources for research and development to identify superior materials and technologies that have provided a quantum leap in our therapeutic alternatives," says Ted Snell, a certified prosthetist, president of C.F.I. Prosthetics and Orthotics, as well as 2006-07 president of the American Orthotic & Prosthetic Association (AOPA).

Everyone Benefits

In addition to soldiers, civilians reap the benefits of advanced prosthetics and increased funding for research. For instance, Heather Mills—a below-knee amputee—was highly praised for her appearance on ABC's "Dancing With the Stars." And Oscar Pistorius—a 20-year-old South African double amputee who competed in Athens at the 2004 Paralympics—is now running the 200- and 400-meter sprints fast enough to earn a spot on the official Olympic team.

Advances in prosthetics have helped many, such as Sergeant Michael McNaughton, overcome serious injuries.

Although the advances in orthotics (orthopedic braces) and prosthetics are considered "good news" for many, there are still challenges to overcome. For example, comparing Medicare payments in 2003 against 2005 payments, dollars paid for orthotic and prosthetic devices declined while the number of devices provided increased.

"We need some basic protections to assure that both government and private insurers provide appropriate reimbursement and coverage for orthotics and prosthetics. This will help guarantee the best possible outcomes in restoring the level of function to which all our patients are entitled," says AOPA President-Elect Brad Ruhl, vice president of Otto Bock HealthCare, an international orthotics and prosthetics manufacturer.

ANTWERP HISTORY

By: Stan Jordan

This picture is 70 years old. It was taken in 1937. I think it was a physical education class. My good friends, Lois Anderson Fleck and Eloise Langham Hopkins helped me with these and I'll relate to you all that I can.

The first row, left end is Betty Laney and she married Glen "Chink" Williams. They had a fine family and lived in Antwerp. Ruth Parrott married a man named Ramage and lived in the Fort Wayne area. Madeline Simms married a man named Berenyi and lived around Sherwood or Ney. Inez Fett graduated in 1940 and married a man named Riley. Marion McCreary married a man named Ed

Reynolds and lived around Antwerp for a while. Phyliss Guysinger married George McKeever and had a nice family. Dorothy Quaintance married Mr. Roth and lived around the Harlan area. Fairy Boesch, after graduation, was married and lived in Virginia, I understand. I think that is Helen Gordon, she is married to a man named Moon and farms between Woodburn and Monroeville. Dorothy Donat married Virgil Balsler and had two boys and is doing well here in the Antwerp area. Kathy Chiles, her father was the Methodist Minister. She married Lloyd Griggs, "Pete" and lived in Ft. Wayne. Eileen Armstrong married a man named Arend and lived in Ft. Wayne. Phyliss Bissell was married and lived in the Dayton area. Later on, they moved out west. Pauline Hargrave married Willard and had a nice family and stayed in the Antwerp area. Dorothy Gordon married a man named Swartzwalter, lived in Fort Wayne, had four children. She and her husband are gone now. Dorothy Tolbolt married Howard Monroe and lives in New Haven. They had two boys. Vivian Stevenson married Ray Beerbower and they live around the Leo area. Doris Jump, she mar-

Helen Hartman, she married Norm Slessman. I worked with her in 1941 in Doering & Long Grocery Store. She was a nice lady. Dorothy Harris married Ed Hooker and lived in Payne. The next lady was the Class Advisor, Mrs. Zimmerman, she later married Wilbur Clemmer.

The first lady in the back row is Samantha Johnson. She married George Jump and had five children. They lived for a few years on Guam when they came back and settled down in Virginia and Sammy lives there now. Elouise Webber married George Daniels and had two children. I think they retired in Florida.

The next lady is Letha Mohart. She married a Mr. Harpel and that's about all I know of them. The next lady is Jane

She operated a beauty parlor for many years. She is gone now. I think Betty Friend is next. She married Wayne Humbarger. They had two boys and lived in the Antwerp area. Betty Boyce married Mr. Berning and they lived in northern Indiana. Betty is still quite active. Juanita Chester married Joe Magdich and they lived in the Toledo area. Jaunita is gone now. The next lady, I think, is Ruth Tracey. She married Gerald Miller and lived in Hicksville. The last lady in the row is Rosetta Guysinger. She married Robert Boesch and lived southwest of town. They are both gone now.

HOUSE REPUBLICANS GIVE GILLMOR ENERGY BILL SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT

WASHINGTON, DC—House Republicans this week brought Northwest Ohio Congressman Paul Gillmor (R-Tiffin) back to the Energy and Commerce Committee. Because of Gillmor's seniority and expertise from his work on the 2005 Energy Bill, he was brought back for a one-week special assignment to the committee during consideration of the latest energy legislation. He had taken a leave of absence from the committee to serve as the top Republican on a Financial Services subcommittee. During consideration of the current energy bill, Gillmor is Ohio's lone voice on the Energy and Commerce Committee.

In 2005, Congressman Gillmor was the only Ohioan to serve as a member of the Energy Conference Committee which created the Energy Bill signed by President Bush. From his post on the committee, Gillmor won the approval of provisions to protect the environment from leaking storage tanks and preserve an Ohio clean coal tax credit for the use of in-state coal to generate electricity. That provision alone saves Ohio $36 million annually.

One of Gillmor's most important efforts in the 2005 Energy Bill was the doubling of the ethanol mandate in gasoline. "Often times in Washington, people can't see the direct impact of the bills they pass. But when it comes to ethanol, the impact in my district could not be more apparent. Before we passed the 2005 Energy Bill, there were no ethanol plants operating in the State of Ohio. Today, there are eight planned in my district alone, some of which have already broken ground," Gillmor said.

"We have done a lot of work over the past several years to make our nation more energy independent," Gillmor said. "But with all of the driving I do around our district, I know, like all of my constituents, that the price of a gallon of gasoline is anything but acceptable. We have a lot more work to do in America to become energy independent and expand alternative energy. We need more investment into wind, solar, hydrogen, clean-coal, ethanol and other types of energy production to wean our nation off of our dangerous dependence on foreign oil. The development of alternative fuels is the right policy for our national security and the environment of our nation," Gillmor said.

Gillmor said the 2007 Energy Bill being designed by Democrats in Congress misses a great opportunity to build on the successes of the 2005 Energy Bill but he will continue to work with his colleagues to design the right bill. "I am glad I was given this opportunity to be a part of this year's Energy Bill and I will continue working with both the Republican and the Democratic leadership to ensure we move our nation towards energy independence," Gillmor said.

Today, Gillmor's committee is finalizing legislation regarding the Food and Drug Administration, Prescription Drug and Medical Device User Fees.

SORRY, TRY AGAIN

By: Sara Trauterman

She envisioned red umbrellas and strawberry scented air,

Carnivals and country fields.

But instead she lived a bottle cap life with "Sorry, Try Again." as the theme.

The pseudo-happiness that was seen from her eyes was yearning to feel real,

Only so people would stop telling her "I feel sorry for you".

She heard that enough from life.

The Vapors told the rest of her story,

Turning Japanese wasn't too out of the picture.

Who would have known the 80s would come back to haunt her?

If it was her guess (which it never was anyway),

It would have been the 70s.

She knew all her life everything was always the opposite of what she thought,

So she decided to give opposition a chance to succeed.

But fate was one step behind and one step ahead.

She couldn't match that, So she bought another Coca Cola.

Maybe this time she'll win.

MONSTERS, THE MYSTERY MACHINE, & SCOOBY-DOO AT THE LIBRARY NEXT WEEK

HICKSVILLE—There's monsters, the Mystery Machine, and Scooby-Doo at the Johnson Memorial Library next week, as a part of this year's Summer Reading Program. This year's theme is "Get a Clue @ Your Library."

For preschool to elementary school children, the Monster Mysteries story time program will be on July 2 at 2:00 p.m., the Mystery Machine Day on July 5 at 2:00 p.m., and the Scooby-Doo Movie Night on July 5 at 6:30 p.m. For middle school to high school youth, a Mystery Game Day is scheduled for July 6 and will run from noon until 6:00 p.m. All of the Summer Reading Programs are free.

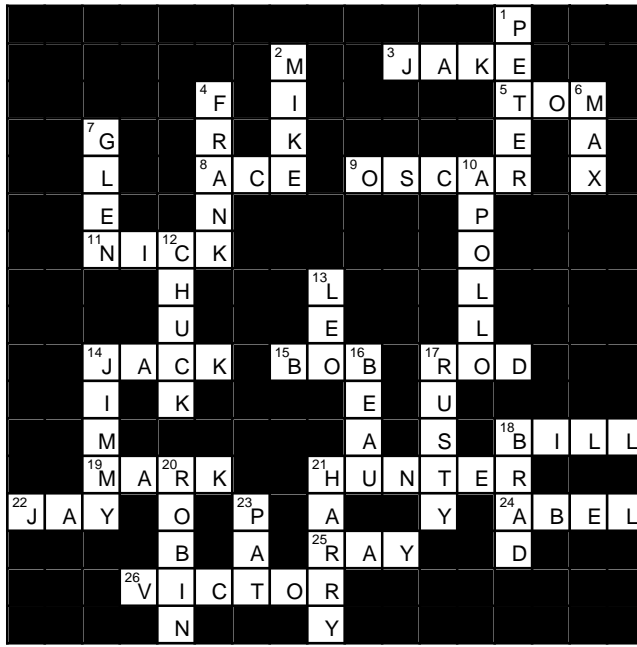

On July 2, investigate the mysteries of the Loch Ness Monster, Big Foot, and other mysterious creatures through books, movies, and crafts. Help uncover the truth behind the Loch Ness Monster and Big Foot.

"July the 5th is all about Scooby-Doo," explained Branch Manager Amy Murphy. "We'll kick off the day with a Mystery Machine program at 2:00 p.m. Join Scooby-Doo and the gang as they solve mysteries and eat Scooby Snacks. And then at 6:30 p.m., we'll host a Hawaiian Scooby-Doo movie, complete with popcorn and leis."

On July 6 at 2:00 p.m., the library will host a Mystery Game Day for middle school to high school youth. Mystery games and board games will be available from noon until 6:00 p.m.

For more information on the Summer Reading Program, any of its workshops, or for a complete program schedule, call or stop by the library. The Summer Reading program will run through July 26.

Answers to "What does that man's name mean?"

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I want to know who the Special Interest Groups, Lobbyist, Congressmen, Senators, State and Local level, and Big Business people who are trying to sell out our country for their own benefit. I want them published on TV, radio and the newspaper so the whole world can know who is selling out the country including all individuals who are trying to run for president. Any pork barrel spending that is tacked on to the amnesty bill should be thrown out—period. Border and port security and rounding up illegal immigrants law of 1986 and again in 1997 should be enforced to the full extent before you ever think about legalizing or giving amnesty to any illegals regardless of race, color, or creed that our politicians are selling out to line their own pockets.

In response to Senator Spector's quote that this will put the country in total anarchy (a state of society without government or law) if this bill does not pass. He is wrong in his mind with thinking the country will be in total anarchy if the bill don't pass, but if the bill does pass the country will definitely be in total anarchy. A prime example is NAFTA protecting China while they build an automobile plant in Tiajuana and China won't have to pay tariff to ship their automobiles into this country which will drive the automobile industry wages down to minimum wage to be equivalent to all the illegals in the country taking American people's jobs down to the level of a fry cook at McDonald's. I am sick and tired of the Democrats saying that they want things passed because it's the will of the people and obviously the will of the people is 85% against this Congress and the President, so in 2008 the people are going to rise up the pole and if every vote is not counted the people of this country will be way more than very disappointed, and forget the electoral vote because that eliminates the independent vote.

—Toby Fulk

A VISION OF "MAUMEE LANDING"

Aerial view of the future "Maumee Landing"

By: Sue Knapp
Oley McMichael of Antwerp has a vision. That vision has a name and it is Maumee Landing.

Maumee Landing is located in Antwerp just off SR 49 north. It is back toward the river, so it is surrounded by trees. When you go back there it's like being in the country. It is away from the highway, traffic and sheltered from the goings on in town. Because it is in town, you can have those advantages of being able to walk uptown to do your errands.

The "Landing" has 32 lots from the sizes of 1/3 acre to approximately 1 1/2 acres. The first four lots will be condominiums with 6 lots capable of having walk-out basements.

Road beds and sewer lines are now being installed. They are getting ready for power and each lot will be hooked up to city water, sewer and have a sewer tap. Curbs and sidewalks will be installed.

It is projected that by the end of summer and early fall they will start building.

Celebrating American Courage

(NAPSA)—A celebration honoring the nation's brave military men and women is expected to draw salutes from Americans across the country.

The Purple Heart is awarded in the name of the President of the United States to any member of an Armed Force who has been wounded or killed, or who has died or may die after being wounded.

For 75 years, the Military Order of the Purple Heart has worked to educate people about the award and preserve the memories of those who have worn it. To mark its 75th anniversary, the order will hold a gala celebration in New Windsor, New York. New Windsor is where General George Washington held his last encampment. Washington created the medal eventually known as the Purple Heart 225 years ago.

Celebrating The Past
A General George Washington reenactor will appear at the gala, escorted by the 24-piece Fife and Drum Corps from the 3rd Infantry's Old Guard, a ceremonial Army unit. Also appearing will be the mounted cavalry from the First Troop Philadelphia City Cavalry (FTPCC), the oldest remaining cavalry unit in America.

The FTPCC horsemen actually accompanied General Washington and provided mounted security for his movement around the battlefield. They will wear the uniforms of the period.

A gala event will celebrate Purple Heart winners and the history of the medal.

The Brigade of the American Revolution, an organized group of Colonial reenactors from around the country, will also appear. Both men and women will wear period costumes to add Colonial flavor to the event.

A reenactment of the presentation of the Badge of Military Merit, which was the precursor to the Purple Heart, will be performed.

A History Of Courage
General Washington created the award to present to his most courageous enlisted soldiers. General Douglas MacArthur had the current Purple Heart redesigned and issued in 1932 to be awarded to those military personnel killed or wounded in action with the enemy. The gala will be held on August 7 of this year. Numerous dignitaries and national politicians have already accepted invitations to appear.

GROVER HILL LADIES AUXILIARY MEETING

The next monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2873 is scheduled for Tuesday, July 10, beginning at 7:00 p.m. Members are encouraged to attend the meeting held at the post home on South Main Street in Grover Hill.

Items to be discussed include upcoming events and planning session for the 2007-2008 auxiliary year. We're looking for a few good women. If you are the wife, mother, daughter, sister, etc. of a foreign war veteran and are interested in joining an organization that works within the community to assist veterans and their families, youth, and senior citizens, please contact Chris Taylor, auxiliary president, through the Grover Hill VFW Post at 419-587-3223 (or your local VFW Post) to see if you qualify.

A Year Later and Still Pain Free

Those with chronic back pain can now breathe a sigh of relief thanks to Dr. Drake Hughes and his FDA cleared non-surgical technology, the DRS® System.

The DRS® System treats herniated, bulging and protruding discs, sciatica, facet syndrome, post-surgical pain and degenerated discs.

The treatment has developed as a clinically proven, non-surgical option for those who suffer pain from lower back.

MRI studies taken before and after treatment show that herniated discs may be repositioned and re-hydrated with this technology. Long-term studies have shown lasting results for many patients.

"It's like a modern miracle," raves Donald Lippi of Van Wert. "Heck, even my orthopedic surgeon was surprised. It saved me from back surgery."

"In many cases, the DRS® System is better and safer than surgery," says Dr. Drake Hughes, the first doctor in the local area to utilize the DRS® System.

"Since I began using this technology, I have performed over

A full year has passed and Stephanie Schweller of Paulding remains pain free.

2,500 treatments on patients who thought there was no hope, some even had prior surgery," says Dr. Hughes D.C. "In one preliminary study, up to 86 percent of those treated with this technology had significant relief following therapy."

Treatment for the patient is extremely comfortable and most patients fall asleep during their 30-minute treatment session. In some cases, the pain resolves within the first few minutes of being on the machine.

"Most patients I see have tried everything from medication to surgery. Thanks to this technology, I am able to help patients quickly without any of the risks or side effects of surgery," explained Dr. Hughes.

EMINENT DOMAIN

Weekly column by: State Representative Lynn Wachtmann

For many Americans, owning their own home is often the realization of a life-long dream. Whether it is a person's a first home or their dream home, buying a house is one of the largest purchases a person will ever make. Unfortunately, recent events involving private homes being taken by the government for economic development have left both residents and members of the Legislature concerned about the use of eminent domain in Ohio.

Eminent domain is the power of the state to take private property without the owner's consent, as long as it will fulfill a public need. States can also delegate this power to other government entities or a third party, such as a utility provider. In order to address this issue and protect the rights of property owners, members of the Ohio House recently voted to approve House Bill 5, legislation that restricts the use of eminent domain in Ohio.

Property owners across the country were worried after the U.S. Supreme Court gave a two pronged ruling in 2005 in the case of Kelo v. New London. The Court held that a government's use of eminent domain for economic development purposes is constitutional but that a government may also pass rules to prohibit such takings. That same year, the Ohio Supreme Court ruled the Ohio Constitution did not allow the taking of property for the primary purpose of economic development, but also noted that there are no guaranteed protections under Ohio law.

In response to these rulings, the Legislature created a task force to study the use of eminent domain laws in Ohio. Many of the task force's recommendations were incorporated into House Bill 5, which was sponsored by State Representative Bob Gibbs (R-Lakeville). The bill includes provisions that specifically define blight, such as having unsafe or unsanitary conditions, environmental contamination or possessing tax delinquencies that exceed the fair value of the land. The bill also defines "blighted area" as one where 50 percent or more of the parcels in a targeted area are blighted, and also prevents farmland from being declared blighted.

Other provisions in House Bill 5 serve to protect the rights of private property owners by limiting the use of eminent domain. Under the bill, entities are prohibited from using eminent domain to take property unless it is for a public use and any entity wishing to do so must provide a development plan that describes the public need and includes a resolution from the governing body affirming the public need. Entities must also provide a period for public comment and obtain an appraisal of the property. Owners have the right to repurchase the property if it has not been used for its stated purpose within five years.

By creating statewide standards for the use of eminent domain, we give property owners a clearer sense of their rights and prevent the type of land takings that occurred in the Kelo case from happening here in Ohio. In addition, we will have uniform standards across the state, instead of making property owners contend with different laws depending upon their locale.

House Bill 5 was approved by a 98-0 vote in the House and now moves to the Senate for further consideration. Members also continue to work on Senate Bill 7 and Senate Joint Resolution 1, which were recently approved by the Senate. Senate Bill 7, sponsored by state Senator Tim Grendell, is similar to House Bill 5 but includes different definitions of blight and defines "blighted area" as having 90 percent of the parcels declared to be blighted. Senate Joint Resolution 1, sponsored by state Senator Kevin Coughlin, would place an amendment in the Ohio Constitution that prohibits public authorities from using eminent domain primarily for economic purposes. If the House approves this resolution, the amendment would appear on the November ballot.

PETS & PEOPLE

Helping Pets Live Longer, Healthier Lives

(NAPSA)—Sharing information with your vet can be more than a purr-fectly good idea. It can help you get better care for your pets. Americans spent nearly $13 million on veterinary care last year, says the American Pet Products Manufacturers Association. To get the most out of the money they spend, owners need to share some details.

It's important to tell your veterinarian about any behavior changes in your pet since they could indicate an underlying medical condition.

susceptible. Many cat owners mistakenly believe that heartworm is a disease only affecting dogs.

“Not so,” said Dr. Plotnick. “Cats and dogs are equally at risk for heartworm.”

Brush Up On Home Care: Ask what you can do to keep your cat healthy, including at-home grooming tips for nail clipping and brushing—his fur and his teeth.

A recent IDEXX Laboratories study reports that cats with common dental diseases are five times more likely to test positively for FIV and FeLV.

Harmless Vs. Harmful Behavior: Tell your vet about any sudden behavior changes. Lethargy, hyperactivity, aggression, growling and urinating/defecating in inappropriate places may indicate an underlying medical problem.

Your veterinarian is the best source for information on testing, disease prevention and pet wellness, but you are the best source of information about your pet.

ADAM SEYBERT GRADUATES FROM UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY

Adam G. Seybert graduated from the United States Military Academy on May 26, 2007 and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the Army Medical Service Corps. Lt. Seybert is the son of Greg Seybert of Elkhart and Sue and Bill Pipher of LaGrange.

Adam G. Seybert graduated from the United States Military Academy on May 26, 2007 and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the Army Medical Service Corps. Lt. Seybert is the son of Greg Seybert of Elkhart and Sue and Bill Pipher of LaGrange. Seybert received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics with a minor in nuclear engineering, was ranked third academically in a graduating class of 978, and was one of 45 honor graduates to receive their diplomas directly from Vice President Dick Cheney. Among his accomplishments, Seybert won the 2006 International Competition in Modeling, was a USA Today Academic All-American, a finalist for the Marshall and Churchill Scholarships, and received the General of the Army Omar N. Bradley Award for Excellence in Mathematics. He was also inducted into the Phi Kappa Phi and Pi Mu Epsilon (mathematics) National Honor Societies. While a cadet at West Point, Seybert participated in a Special Forces Training School at Fort Bragg, NC and completed an internship at the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory in Livermore, CA. Following the Medical Officer Basic Training Course at Fort Sam Houston in Texas, Lt. Seybert will proceed to Germany for his first assignment. As a member of the Medical Service Corps, Seybert plans on pursuing his desire to become an aeromedical-evacuation pilot following his first year in Germany. The mission of the United States Military Academy is to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, and Country, and prepare cadets for a career of professional excellence and service to the nation as an officer in the United States Army. Adam is the grandson of former resident Phyllis Ramsier Seybert, he also has several other relatives in the area: Maxine Ramsier (aunt), Floyd and Neil Ramsier (cousins), Darrell Robbins, Darlene Robbins Waltenburg, all from Antwerp, Dave Robbins (cousin) from Wisconsin, and Phyllis Perkins Albert from Paulding.

Fresh Ways To Wear Pearls
(NAPSA)—Although pearls are the oldest jewels known to man, there are many fresh new ways to wear this universal gem.
Honora, the largest distributor of fine Chinese cultured freshwater pearls in the U.S. and one of the most recognized names in cultured freshwater pearl jewelry, has been creating jewelry made with the classic pearl for over 60 years.
In celebration of its 10 years of offering cultured freshwater pearls and mother-of-pearl jewelry created especially for QVC, Honora's owner and CEO, Joel Schechter, provides 10 style tips on wearing the latest pearl looks.
• Mix pearls with gemstones. Colorful gemstones add interest to the standard strand.
• Chain links. An interlocking design of freshwater pearls and sterling silver creates an elegant chain-like appearance.
• Colors. Freshwater pearls are available in natural colors that range from peach tones to deep plum.
• Different shapes. Pearls don't have to be a simple circle. They come in various shapes, including ovals, baroque, rondel or semi-round.
• Long strands. A single long strand can be layered, knotted or worn loose and long.
• Bold pearls. Try a button-shaped pearl ring with sterling silver accents.
• Layering. To take your look from mosture to dramatic, layer on multiple strands.
• Dramatic drops. Pearls dangling from drop earrings are the ultimate evening accessory.
• Chunky bracelets. A stretch bracelet with pearls woven together creates a focal point on your wrist.
• Everything old is new again. The classic strand is sophisticated and sentimental for life's special moments.
For a complete list of styles, visit www.QVC.com.

Did You Know?

(NAPSA)—Cleaning your car inside and out prevents the buildup of damaging chemicals and dirt, reduces the potential for rust from road salt and helps ensure the visibility needed for safe driving, according to the Car Care Council, which sponsors the Be Car Care Aware consumer education campaign.
