AMERICAN RED CROSS URGES HOUSEHOLDS TO PREPARE FOR EMERGENCIES

Disasters can strike quickly and often without warning. During National Preparedness Month, the American Red Cross of Northwest Ohio encourages members of the community to get ready for the next emergency or disaster.

"Having a game plan in place is essential for every family so they know what to do when an emergency occurs, whether here at home or on vacation," said Gary Loboschewski, emergency services manager for American Red Cross of Northwest Ohio, "National Preparedness Month is a perfect time for people to create or update their plan."

MAKE A PLAN It is important that everyone in the household helps put the emergency plan together and knows what they should do if something occurs. Family members may not be together when a disaster happens - during the day many people are at work and school. The plan should include ways to contact one another and two predetermined places to meet - one near the home in case of a sudden emergency like a fire, and one outside the neighborhood in case circumstances prevent people from returning home due to damage or evacuations. People should also identify an emergency contact person from outside the area in case local telephone lines are overloaded or out of service. If pets are part of the household, make sure to include plans for them such as pet-friendly hotels and animal shelters along the evacuation route.

BUILD A DISASTER KIT Being prepared means being equipped with the proper supplies needed in the event of an emergency or disaster. Supplies should be kept in an easy-to-carry emergency preparedness kit that can be used at home or taken along during an evacuation. Minimally, it should include: a three-day supply of water (one gallon, per person, per day), nonperishable food, a flashlight, battery-powered or hand-crank radio, extra batteries, a first aid kit, a 7-day supply of medications, a multi-purpose tool, sanitation and personal hygiene items, copies of personal documents (deed/lease to home, passports, birth certificates, insurance policies), mobile phone with charger, family and emergency contact information, extra cash, emergency blanket, and map(s) of the area. Special medical supplies and additional items for pets and infants should be part of the kit if applicable.

DOWNLOAD RED CROSS APPS The Red Cross has free mobile apps that provide information on what to do before, during, and after emergencies including developing an emergency plan. "People can use the 'Make a Plan' feature in the apps to create their plan and then share it with their loved ones," said Amanda Aldrich, communications specialist for the American Red Cross Northwest Ohio Region. "The preloaded content in the apps gives people access to vital information to use during emergencies, even if they can't connect to the internet." The apps can be downloaded from the Apple App Store and the Google Play Store for Android by searching for American Red Cross.

TAKE A CLASS It is important to take a First Aid and CPR/AED course—a vital component of disaster preparedness during an emergency when often help is delayed. Online and in-person courses are available in a variety of formats. People can sign up by calling 1-800-REDCROSS or visiting redcross.org/takeaclass.

To learn more about emergency preparedness, visit redcross.org/prepare, contact the local Red Cross office, or follow American Red Cross of Northwest Ohio on Facebook.

"We had an incredible amount of interest in participating in the market," said Gina Kostoff, Market Manager.

"We have even more farmers and food producers who are ready to provide fresh produce, meats, eggs and other farm and agricultural products throughout the duration of the Winter market. Many of our artisan and craft vendors will be back with us as well. We will be releasing the list of our vendors within the next three weeks."

Some changes in the second year include longer hours and a biweekly schedule with the market being open from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of each month, October through May. These changes were made to accommodate the number of high quality vendors who applied as well as to help create and even better market experience for shoppers.

the friend you go to when you need to talk and always has your back. His goal is to build relationships with the adults in the high school, as well in the rest of the community. If you're a New Haven resident, there's a great chance you've heard of Zach or have met him in passing. He is the Campus Life Director of New Haven, and a 2008 New Haven graduate. After joining Campus Life in high school, he was deeply impacted by his director to be around others. Luckily, that job is all about being around the students and staff of New Haven. He enjoys meeting new people and getting to know them, motorcycle riding, and just having a great time.

Favorite TV show: Amazing Race. My cousin and I have always talked about applying for the show; being in the race, traveling the world, and competing for the prize.

Dream Job: My dream job; being lead guitar in a famous rock band. Being a rockstar (I don't know if this counts or not)

Favorite Restaurant: Chik-fil-a or Panda Express. Since we don't have these restaurants in New Haven, any time I'm up North or Southwest I stop and get one or the other.

COATS LAUNCHES "INDIANA INPUT" CAMPAIGN

Senator Dan Coats (R-IN) today launched the "Indiana Input" campaign to encourage people to share their stories on how the health care law, our nation's tax system and the onslaught of federal regulations are impacting Hoosiers.

"As I represent Hoosiers in the U.S. Senate, I am focused on protecting our country from terrorist threats and strengthening our national security, but equally important is the need to strengthen our nation's fiscal security," said Coats. "I believe there are three problem areas keeping America from getting back on track toward growth and prosperity: the costly health care law, the impact of federal regulations on businesses and our burdensome tax system. Whether I am visiting with Hoosiers across the state or preparing for votes and hearings at the Capitol, I want to continue to take the 'Indiana Input' back to Washington. I encourage Hoosiers to help me give them a voice in Washington by sharing their stories with me on how Obamacare, federal regulations and taxes are impacting Indiana families and jobs."

Hoosiers can share their story with Senator Coats by clicking on the image below or visiting www.coats.senate.gov/indianainput.

ANTWERP BROADCASTING CLASS SPREAD WINGS

Pictured here, STS students Jacob O'Donnell, Aaron O'Donnell, and Derek Reeb run the equipment while sophomore Beth Hawley and senior Aaron Schneider practice the script. In the back, fourth grader Tucker Franklin prepares to go on camera for the very first time, and fourth graders Kate Farr and Nathan Dunstan practice the Pledge of Allegiance.

Antwerp Local School is now broadcasting morning announcements and other programs to the entire school (preschool through grade 12) over the television system. The announcements include the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance by two different elementary students each day, a weather forecast from the 4A Weather Station, birthdays, sports news, events of the day, various school and community announcements, and mini-stories and extra features created by Mrs. Bagley's broadcast journalism class. Recorded airings will soon be available on the school website.

This exciting change was made possible with the purchase of new equipment and materials, including a mixer with virtual sets, a green screen, and an additional teleprompter screen. It was also possible since Antwerp Elementary now runs on the same schedule as the middle and high school.

The morning announcements program allows students to gain important 21st century life skills, including public speaking/broadcasting, writing, technology, and collaboration skills. Most involved students volunteer their time to run the equipment behind the scenes or to go on camera.

Answers to last week's questions:

1. Because they were excited about their success;
2. for rest;
3. Place of fishing;
4. Christ received them gladly;
5. The kingdom of God;
6. Means about the laws of that kingdom which we must be bound and the privileges by which we might be blessed.;
- 7.

Soul and body-spiritual and physical.; 8. Death; 9. by His grace and comforts and has for each of us what we need?

Now for some comments on what we have studied. Chapter 9:12-17 tells us about the feeding of the 5,000 men. Our Lord Jesus was of a free and generous spirit. Notice the apostles said send them away but Jesus said feed them. Christ not only heals those that need healing, cures the diseases of the soul, but feeds them too that need feeding, supports the spiritual life, relieves the necessities of it, and satisfies the desires of it. This is all done for those who seek Christ and trust Him. Only five loaves of bread and two fish, such a small amount to feed such a multitude, but the little we have, Jesus can help what we have multiply, you and I need to use what we have. The little that we have, the righteous, is better than the many riches of the wicked.

Ol' Baldy says bye for now, but continue to pray, read, and study the Bible. Luv' Ya!

OHIO'S DEER ARCHERY HUNTING SEASON BEGINS SEPT. 28

Ohio's popular white-tailed deer archery hunting season starts Saturday, September 28, and is open through February 2, 2014, according to the Ohio Department of Natural Resources (ODNR). Approximately 205,000 bowhunters will participate in one of the longest deer hunting seasons in the nation. This number represents more than half of the Ohioans that will hunt deer this season.

Ohio is introducing an antlerless deer muzzleloader hunting season October 12-13. It is legal to bowhunt during this weekend, but no bucks may be killed regardless of hunting implement. Deer hunting hours are 30 minutes before sunrise to 30 minutes after sunset for all deer seasons. Archery season is also open during the week of deer-gun season, December 2-8.

The statewide limit is nine deer (excluding ODNR Division of Wildlife authorized controlled hunts), but hunters cannot exceed a county bag limit. Only one buck may be killed regardless of county or hunting method. Only one antlerless permit may be used per county, and antlerless permits are not valid after Sunday, December 1.

Archers hunting during the statewide gun, youth gun and muzzleloader seasons must meet the hunter orange requirement by visibly wearing a vest, coat, jacket or covering that are either solid hunter orange or camouflage hunter orange. This requirement applies statewide on both public and private land.

A new tagging procedure administered by the ODNR Division of Wildlife requires hunters to make their own game tag to attach to a deer. Game tags can be made of any material (cardboard, plastic, paper, etc.) as long as it contains the hunter's name, date, time and county of the kill. Go to the Deer Hunting Resources page at wildohio.com for more information on changes to the game check process.

All hunters must report their deer harvest using the automated game-check system. Hunters have three options to complete the game check:

- Online at ohiogamecheck.com;
- Call 877-TAG-ITOH (824-4864);
- Visit a license agent. A list of agents can be found by calling 800-WILDLIFE (945-3543).

Game-check transactions are available online and by telephone seven days a week, including holidays. Landowners exempt from purchasing a deer permit, and other people not required to purchase a deer permit, cannot use the telephone option.

The ODNR Division of Wildlife remains committed to properly managing Ohio's deer populations through a combination of regulatory and programmatic changes. Progress toward reducing locally abundant herds can be expected as strides have already been made in reducing deer herds in many counties closer to target levels.

Ohio hunters are encouraged to harvest more does this season to help the needy in their area. The ODNR Division of Wildlife is working with Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry (FHFH) to help pay for the processing of donated venison. Hunters who donate their deer to a food bank are not required to pay the processing cost as long as funding for the effort lasts. More information about this program can be found online at fhfh.org.

Many archery hunters were successful in 2012-2013. Bowhunters harvested 85,432 deer, an increase of 3 percent from the previous season. Crossbow hunters bagged 47,496 deer and longbow hunters took 37,936. The top three Ohio counties for the combined 2012-2013 crossbow and longbow harvest were Licking, Coshocton and Tuscarawas, respectively. Archers accounted for 39 percent of the 218,910 deer harvested during Ohio's combined 2012-2013 archery, muzzleloader and gun seasons.

Deer hunting in Ohio continues to be a popular activity for many who enjoy the outdoors. Ohio hunters checked 218,910 deer during the 2012-2013 season. Ohio ranks fifth nationally in resident hunters and 11th in the number of jobs associated with hunting-related industries. Hunting has a more than $853 million economic impact in Ohio through the sale of equipment, fuel, food, lodging and more, according to the National Shooting Sports Foundation's Hunting in America: An Economic Force for Conservation publication.

ODNR reminds the public that all deer hunters are required to have a valid Ohio hunting license and a valid deer permit. A detailed listing of deer hunting rules is contained in the 2013-14 Ohio Hunting Regulations, available where licenses are sold, or at wildohio.com.

ODNR ensures a balance between wise use and protection of our natural resources for the benefit of all. Visit the ODNR website at ohiodnr.gov.

SOUTHWICK ELEMENTARY TO HOST SENSORY ROOM OPEN HOUSE

On Thursday, September 19, 2013, at 10:00 a.m., the Southwick Elementary staff and Special Services department will host an open house to showcase the Student Sensory Room. In collaboration with EACS Special Services department and Lisa Compton of Sensory Critters, Southwick Elementary began Phase 1 of the implementation of their sensory room in February 2013.

Southwick's sensory team made up of district and building administrators, teachers, and support staff, received training on how to use each piece of sensory equipment with students. A pilot group of sixteen students with significant behavioral needs was formed. A sensory profile was given to each student to assess his or her sensory needs. Staff then designed a sensory "diet" or plan to address each student's needs through regularly scheduled visits to the sensory room. Staff collected data regarding the number of time students were removed from class, both pre-sensory room and post-sensory room. An analysis of this data shows a drastic reduction in the removal of students from class by the end of the 2012-2013 school year (a reduction of at least 74%). Phase 2 of implementation began in August of this year with the installation of additional equipment and the identification of four additional students exhibiting behaviors indicating sensory needs.

What is a Sensory Room?

A sensory room, also known as a multi-sensory environment, is designed to create both a calming and stimulating atmosphere. This is accomplished by furnishing the room with specialized equipment designed to address different sensory-based needs. Sensory rooms use evidence-based interventions and strategies to promote balance and overall well being. Through the implementation of their multi-sensory environment, Southwick Elementary has successfully shifted their focus to the "whole child." This shift has resulted in a decrease in destructive and disruptive behaviors along with an increase in student focus and productivity in the classroom.

For more information regarding the invitation only open house, please contact Tamyra Kelly at 260-446-0100 (ext. 1050).

SCIENCE EXPERIMENTS BRING ELEMENTARY & HIGH SCHOOL TOGETHER!

At the beginning of September, high school students in Mrs. Reinhart's AP Chemistry class at Antwerp Local conducted a science experiment with first grade students. While blindfolded, the first graders had to use their senses of touch, taste, and smell to form a hypothesis or guess what food was in front of them.

WANTED: INDIANA SENATE INTERNS

Kruse Report by: IN State Sen. Dennis Kruse (R-Auburn)

Are you or someone you know a college student or recent college graduate interested in state government? If so, I encourage you to apply for the Indiana State Senate internship program. The Senate is currently seeking hard-working, motivated students for the General Assembly's upcoming 2014 legislative session.

The Senate Republican and Democrat Caucuses offers paid, spring semester internships to college undergraduates, graduate students and recent college graduates. This is a unique opportunity to gain practical knowledge of state government while honing a specific career interest. Interns work directly with legislators at the Statehouse, located in downtown Indianapolis.

Since Indiana has a part-time legislature, the workload of our staff increases during session. Senate interns are absolutely vital players in the legislative process, taking on some of the same responsibilities as our staff. Because of that, the internship is a full-time, Monday through Friday commitment.

There are several different types of internships, and they are divided by interest area: legislative, communications and information technology (IT). Legislative interns work directly for one or two state senators, analyze bills, assist constituents and staff Senate committees. Communications interns work with Senate press secretaries to coordinate media strategies, which include writing press releases, utilizing social media, and interacting with members of the press. IT interns implement Senate technologies, such as the General Assembly's live-stream, and respond to hardware and software needs.

During session, the Statehouse is a top networking site for current or future job seekers. Interns will have the opportunity to interact with representatives from all different kinds of industries from both of the public and private sector.

An added benefit of interning with the Senate is the opportunity to be hired when full-time positions become available. Since we know our interns have real-world job experience, they are more than qualified to fill these openings. If we can't keep them at the Statehouse, we will help them move on to another organization in their field of interest.

The Senate internship program is especially helpful for those interested in politics or government, but it can be also useful for students who are still unsure about their career path.

Each intern will come away with a strong portfolio and tangible skills that can translate into other fields. Not only will students gain legislative research and interpersonal skills, they will walk away with the confidence of working in a fast-paced, professional environment.

To learn more or apply for the program, visit in.gov/senateinternship. The deadline to apply is October 31. What do you think?

STILL TIME TO SIGN UP FOR NEXT LEADERSHIP IN ACTION PROGRAM

The Paulding Chamber still has room for participants in the upcoming Leadership in Action Program. If you are looking for a great way to empower your employee or to have your employee learn more about Paulding County, then this is definitely the perfect program. Please have them email Chamber Director Erika Willitzer at PauldingChamber@gmail.com

LATTA SUPPORTS OBAMACARE SUBSIDY VERIFICATION BILL

Congressman Bob Latta (R-Bowling Green) voted in favor of a bill that would mandate the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to have working verification systems in place to validate eligibility of applicants who are applying for the health care exchange subsidies. Latta cosponsored H.R. 2775, the No Subsidies Without Verification Act, which passed the House today (September 12, 2013).

"In spite of missed deadlines and numerous delays, officials from the administration testified to Congress that implementation of Obamacare remained on schedule; yet, this summer the administration quietly offered exemptions and waivers for sections of the law, including a waiver for the verification of eligibility for insurance subsidies," said Congressman Latta.

On July 5th, HHS released a final rule with more than 600 pages that rescinds requirements for the new state online health insurance marketplaces to verify the income and health coverage status of people who apply for the subsidized coverage, and instead will now rely on the "honor system."

"Similar to how the law was drafted - out of sight from the American people, the administration is making tweaks to the law, and providing exemptions and waivers, behind closed doors. This bill brings accountability to the federal government and provides a solution that will protect hardworking taxpayers from government waste and fraud," Latta concluded.

The Senate has passed a similar measure through the Senate Appropriations Committee by unanimous consent.

PAULDING PRESCHOOLERS RECEIVE NEW TOY BARN

The Preschoolers at Paulding Elementary are grateful for their new toy barn. Now they are able to use their tricycles and other toys every day! The toy barn project was made possible through generous monetary donations from the Paulding Elementary PTO and from the Paulding Elementary cookie dough fundraiser. Paulding Boy Scout Troop 315 then donated their time and labor to build the toy barn and move it to the preschool playground. Boy Scouts Travis Coutts, Michael Kohart, and Brian Matson are pictured with the toy barn.

MARSHMALLOW SHAPES W/ ANTWERP KINDERGARTNERS

Kindergartners at Antwerp Elementary used marshmallows and toothpicks to make shapes, including rectangles, squares, and triangles. With their teacher Ms. Engel, they discussed why they were unable to make circles. Pictured here are Raeley Franklin, Harlee Moore, Emory Ehrhart, and Taylor Stiebling.

MY THOUGHTS ON THE SITUATION

By: Stan Jordan
The following ramblings are of my own ideas and do not reflect the feelings of the WBN.

The leaders in Washington are waiting to get permission to fire rockets in Syria because they have used chemical warfare on their own people.

This is sort of a case of the 'pot calling the skillet black'. As the U.S. has used napalm and agent orange, both are one step above chemicals.

But anyhow, we do not need another war. If we shell Syria, Russia will come and assist them as well as North Korea, and later down the road China will help also. We don't need this kind of confrontation. We are still into a 12-year war that has gotten us nowhere. It is high time we get out of that entire area. Bring the boys home before we lose anymore.

All of this conflict needs to be under the UN and some of the other countries also. What can we gain? When you are the 3rd party in a squabble you can only lose. Another war will not settle anything. If you will look back from the future, and we start with Syria, it will bring nothing but trouble—no light at the end of the tunnel, nothing but bad news.

There is no way morally, financially or militarily we should be there.

Just my thoughts on this no win situation.

See ya!

The Blonde Undertaker

Our blonde friend owned and operated a funeral parlor in a medium sized city in the East.

A lady came in and made arrangements to bury her husband. He was in a brown suit but his wife wanted him buried in a blue pinstripe suit and a pinkish casket. The mortician agreed to all of this.

A little later, another lady brought her husband in and wanted to make some suggestions. Her husband was in a blue pinstripe suit but she wanted him to be buried in a brown suit with a brown casket, he was already in a pinkish casket. The lady undertaker agreed to all this and got started on the job. By the time the ladies got into their homes, the funeral director called them and said the men were ready for viewing. The wives said they would be right over and view their husbands.

The blonde mortician went into the worker's restroom and looked into the mirror and said she made the job short just by changing heads. See ya!

"WHO LET THE DOGS IN?" AT SEPTEMBER WOODBURN HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING

The Woodburn Community Historical Society will meet on Thursday, September

26th at 7:00 p.m. at the Woodburn branch library.

The program for the evening is "Who Let the Dogs In? Dogs as Pets in the mid-19th Century Home. The presenter will be Susan Pfeiffer from the Allen County Public Library. Here's a program for history buffs and dog lovers. It's a well-known fact that dogs were part of people's lives, homes and families. Pfeiffer will be sharing pictures, paintings, and anecdotal pieces about how the view of dogs and their roles in the home changed during the mid-19th century. All are welcome.

Also, on October 24th, the Society will meet at the Community Center at 7:00 p.m. to review items of Days Gone By in the Woodburn community.

WINNER OF THE RIVER RAFT RACE

By: Stan Jordan

This picture is of the winner of this year's Maumee River Raft Race held on August 17. The winners are Austin Bowers and Jordan Leiter. They were the victorious sea captains and will have their name on the traveling trophy for being the winners in 2013.

Dan Bowers tells me there were six rafts in the race, along with a lot of kayaks and canoes. It totaled out about 30 people.

You can see in this picture where the water comes up to Jordan's knees. Dan said there was a little more water this year than last but it still was a little low.

Everyone had a good time and that long in the water will just wear you out. Everyone said they will be back next year for the Maumee River Raft Race.

See ya!

2013 FLAT ROCK CREEK FALL FESTIVAL

Traditionally held during the third weekend in September, the Flat Rock Creek Fall Festival is a celebration of old time steam engines and vintage farm equipment. The air is crisp with the cool suggestion of fall, and filled with the smells of apple cider, kettle corn, corn on the cob, and smoke from hot, boiling steam engines.

Hundreds of people fill the Paulding County Fairgrounds and enjoy browsing hundreds of craftspeople and flea market stands. Favorites each year include the vendor of old and antique tools, holiday handicrafts from area craftsman, the icy cold goodness of freshly churned ice cream and the tender and tasteful fish dinner offered up by the local Kiwanis Club. The event features antique tractor pull competitions as well as

NEW HAVEN RALLIES TO BEAT CARROLL; HOGUE'S BIG GAME CARRIES NEW HAVEN

New Haven's Jordan Hogue escapes the Carroll defense to score for the Bulldogs. More pictures at newhavenbulletin.com

By: Greg Jones, High school sports editor; Michelle Davies, The Journal Gazette

At the end of the first half of the New Haven-Carroll game, there was a flurry of points – four touchdowns in 2½ minutes to be exact – with the Bulldogs finishing on the short end of it and trailing by a touchdown.

But New Haven quickly regrouped and rallied for a thrilling 41-35 win at Carroll on Friday.

The Bulldogs (4-0, 2-0 NHC) outscored the Chargers (3-1, 1-1) 20-7 in the third and fourth quarters.

“It was a great ending to the first half, even though it didn’t end in our favor. But as a football fan, you enjoy it,” New Haven coach Jim Rowland said. “We refocused at halftime. We said obviously we can score quickly and anything can happen, so let’s see what we can do in the second half.”

“Things fell into place for us tonight, our kids played hard, and they believed in themselves. It was a great win for us, but we still have a long way to go.”

There were four scores in the final 2:36 of the first half. New Haven’s Ariest Vasquez tied the score at 14 on a 6-yard run with 2:36 left. Carroll’s Drue Tranquill made it 21-14 with a 38-yard run at the 1:40 mark, and the Bulldogs’ Travis Crowe caught a 63-yard scoring pass with 25.4 seconds remaining to tie the score at 21.

Tyler Winklejohn then capped the first half with a 65-yard touchdown reception as time expired to give the Chargers a 28-21 halftime lead.

Carroll came into the game averaging 55 points, while New Haven averages 54.

New Haven senior Jordan Hogue had two interceptions and two touchdowns, including the game-winner with 9:59 left. He also got a late pick and got a first down on a fake punt late in the game to help preserve the win.

“When they call my number, I try to make big plays when I can. I just try to stay within myself and came up big,” said Hogue, who had a 75-yard punt return that put the Bulldogs up 41-35. “Everybody expected a high-scoring game, but I didn’t expect that high scoring. But it was close and our defense was the big factor.”

Hogue had his second straight big game against the Chargers after providing an interception and fumble recovery in last year’s 33-14 New Haven win.

“Everybody was doubting us,” Hogue said. “We fought hard and came out here and got the ‘W.’ In the second half, we made adjustments.”

Vasquez rushed for 124 yards and two touchdowns for the Bulldogs.

Justin Tranquill got his second touchdown to give Carroll a 35-28 lead late in the third. Hayden Graham’s 1-yard touchdown plunge for the Bulldogs early in the fourth tied the score at 35.

Drue Tranquill had two touchdowns for the Chargers to match brother Justin’s total.

“You can’t be in shootout mode with that kind of team that can score in a heartbeat,” Carroll coach Doug Dinan said. “They were in that shootout mode, and they were victorious, and they didn’t turn it over.”

TOWNSHIP PARK TRAINING REQUIREMENTS CHANGING

Effective April 26, your parks and recreation department may have one more hurdle before it can roll out its youth sports programs. House Bill 143, designed to protect youth from concussions, principally impacts schools, but parks and rec departments may also be covered entities.

ORC § 3707.51 defines “youth sports organization” as a public or non-public entity that organizes an athletic activity in which the athletes are not more than 19 years of age and are required to pay a fee to participate in the athletic activity, or whose cost to participate is sponsored by a business or nonprofit organization. Thus any fee-based youth sports programming, regardless of who pays the fee, may subject your township to these new regulations.

Covered townships must:

- Provide the youth’s parent, guardian, or other caregiver the concussion and head injury information sheet created by the Ohio Department of Health. [Editor’s note: track distribution in some manner, such as having parent sign an acknowledgement upon receipt of the information sheet, or clicking an acknowledgement box if registration is done online]; and
- Require coaches or referees for youth sports organizations to successfully complete training every three years on recognizing the symptoms of signs of concussions, unless those persons individually hold a Pupil Activity Permit (PAP) for coaching interscholastic sports from the Ohio Department of Education (online training is available at no cost on the ODH website); and

• Inform coaches and referees of the above training requirements [Editor’s note: keep a written record or acknowledgement of each coach or referees’ receipt of this notice.]

The new law does not differentiate between employees, independent contractors, or coaches/referees of any other type – it simply requires them to have a PAP or to successfully complete the online training to help recognize the symptoms of concussions and head injuries.

The Ohio Department of Health has published forms to fulfill the compliance requirements of this new law.

In tennis all teams (on Varsity) play best two out of three sets. A set consists of 6 games each (win by two games). To win a game you have to get “4” points in a row. Win by two points. If both players get to 40, it is called “deuce” and the first player to get two points in a row wins that set. (Points=15, 30, 40, set).

CONSIDER YOUR INVESTMENT STRATEGY... AT EACH "SEASON" OF YOUR LIFE

Financial Focus by: Gabe Pollock, Edward Jones Advisor

Fall is almost officially here — and if you're like most people, you're probably wondering how summer went by so fast. Those trips to the lake or the beach are fading in memory now, giving way to helping kids with homework, raking leaves and the other rites of autumn. And just as your day-to-day tasks change with the seasons, so, too, will your money management and investment activities at different phases of your life.

Here's how these scenarios might look:

Phase one: Planning for possibilities — When you're young and you're starting out in the working world, your most immediate financial concerns may be to pay off student loans and then, possibly, save for a down payment on a house. To address both these goals, you'll need to budget carefully. And yet, even at this stage of your life, you should start thinking about saving for retirement — because time is your biggest ally. Consequently, if you work for an employer who offers a retirement plan, such as a 401(k), contribute what you can afford. At the very least, put in enough to earn your company's matching contribution, if one is offered. You may also want to open an Individual Retirement Account (IRA).

Phase two: Gearing up for other goals — As you move through life, and possibly begin a family, you'll likely develop other financial goals, such as helping your children pay for college. You may want to consider investing in a tax-advantaged college savings vehicle, such as a 529 plan. Also, it's important to have enough life insurance to protect your young family.

Phase three: Ramping up for retirement — When you reach the mid-to-later stages of your working life, you may find you have more financial resources available, as your earnings may have increased significantly, your children have grown and your mortgage may even be paid off. If you are not already doing so, "max out," if possible, on your 401(k) and IRA. And if you still have money available to invest, you may want to look for other tax-advantaged retirement vehicles.

Phase four: Reaping the rewards — Now it's time to enjoy the results of your lifetime of hard work and your many years of saving and investing. You may have to tap into your retirement accounts, so you'll need to choose a sustainable annual withdrawal rate. The amount you withdraw each year from your IRA and 401(k) depends on a variety of factors: how much you've saved, the lifestyle you've chosen, your estimated longevity, how much you have available from other sources, and so on.

Phase five: Examining your estate plans — During your retirement years, if not sooner, you'll want to review your estate plans so that you can leave the legacy you desire. If you have a need to create or update your legal documents, such as a living trust and durable power of attorney, you should consider consulting a qualified estate-planning attorney.

You'll need to make the appropriate financial and investment decisions at many different times over the years. This may sound daunting, but with diligence and discipline, you can discover the paths to take as you move through the seasons of your life.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE TIP

(NAPSI)—People with high blood pressure should always read the labels of any medications they may take.

"FROM THE VANTAGE POINT": TECHNOLOGY AT THEIR FINGERTIPS - LITERALLY!

By: John Upole, Sr. Network Systems and Network Systems Instructor, Mr. Larry Regedanz

This year, the Network Systems class received a new piece of technology: The Platform Touch Table. It's a 55" active 3D LED (light emitting diode) LCD (liquid crystal display) HD (high definition) touch table with a powerful integrated PC.

It comes in virtually any color the consumer could want, but the class preferred the sleek, black color. It's 2" thick and has a 1080p display. You have probably heard that term if you have ever shopped for large screen TVs, but basically 1080 is the number of vertical lines of resolution on a screen and 1080 is currently the top of the line for consumer products whether it be a television or computer monitor or Touch Table PC. The "p" stands for progressive which means that each pixel is refreshed progressively or "one after the other" but this happens at a rate of up to 60 times per second so normally the human eye can't tell the difference when watching a movie. "P" is better for computer screens with user interaction.

The Platform has up to 40 simultaneous touch points for multiple users to access it at the same time. This is probably the coolest thing about the Touch Table computer. This means that it can basically react to 40 different touch inputs at the same time. So one student could be moving an object on one end of the screen, and another student could be resizing an object on the other end, and technically 38 other students could have their fingers on the screen doing other things, and the Touch Table computer would respond to all of them at the same time. "Our class was excited and very thrilled to acquire this new piece of technology. Personally, I've witnessed it used to explore earth, space, other planets, even the Sun. It can have various apps and games that come in all forms. I look forward to using this new device to learn new things in the Networking field this year," said senior John Upole (Wayne Trace).

"In an educational scenario, having the Touch Table computer is great for working together in teams on a project" commented instructor Larry Regedanz. "A good example for networking functions would be two teams working together to build and then troubleshoot a virtual network in real time where one team creates problems in the network while the other team tries to resolve them. I'm planning to use a lot of virtualization this year in Network Systems so the students can practice building computers and networks so they are comfortable with the process before working on real equipment."

cause a rise in blood pressure by constricting the blood vessels. Even topical medicines you don't swallow, such as hemorrhoid cream, should be checked.

Fortunately, there are ways to treat hemorrhoids without affecting blood pressure.

Here are some tips:

- Talk to your doctor about safe and effective home treatments, such as warm baths and cold compresses.

- Read product labels and look for packaging that clearly indicates a product with no vasoconstrictors. Many people find that homeopathic Nelsons H+care* treats the pain, itching, swelling and burning of hemorrhoids without vasoconstrictors, steroids, parabens or anesthetics.

- Visit websites such as www.nelsonshcare.com for information on living with high blood pressure and hemorrhoids.

NEW HAVEN'S MCELVENE EXPLAINS DECISION

Steven McElvene with his mom.

By: Greg Jones, High school sports editor

New Haven senior center Steve McElvene committed to play basketball at Dayton on Thursday.

The 6 foot 11, 285-pound McElvene wrote the decision came down to the Flyers or Pittsburgh. Playing time was a factor in his decision.

"It wasn't that hard but it wasn't that easy either," McElvene said in a text message.

McElvene had tweeted he visited Dayton last Sunday. He also had offers from other schools, including Ball State, Wright State, Chicago State, Kansas State, Saint Louis and LaSalle.

McElvene helped lead the Bulldogs to their first sectional title since 1996 with 18 points and 16 rebounds and overall he had 39 points, 33 rebounds and 10 blocks in two regional games.

McElvene, who moved to New Haven last year from Alabama, averaged 10.0 points and 8 rebounds last year and was named to the All-NHC second-team.

MAC GYM EXCEEDS FALL EXPECTATIONS

The 2013 fall league at the MAC Gym has brought new leagues and record player numbers to Antwerp. This fall there were basketball leagues offered to nine different age groups and a youth volleyball league. This is the largest amount of leagues offered in any one season. A new season record of over 275 boys and girls are signed up and playing basketball or volleyball in Antwerp in one or more of the leagues. Players and teams come from as far as Metamora, Toledo, and Marion in Ohio, and New Haven, Monroeville, Leo and Butler, IN.

Varsity and junior high boys and girls teams participate on Sunday afternoons; two leagues each in 3-6 grade girls and boys and a new K-2 grade boys league take in two nights each week. Thursday brings in seven teams of coached players. Teams from Bryan, Antwerp (2), Leo, Eastside, Marion, and Toledo travel to the MAC to keep in shape for the upcoming winter season.

Saturday morning rounds out the week with nine volleyball teams participating. Defiance (2), Fairview (3), Edon, Bryan, and Antwerp (2) teams battle each week to try and improve for the year end tournament.

Other fall events are planned with a JH girls volleyball tournament hosted by the Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church in Antwerp on October 19, and a "Pumpkin Smash" open tournament for any 6th grade or under girls teams in the area on October 26. The final fall event will be a cheer competition for cheer teams in youth, JH, Frosh/JV, and HS divisions. Consult the website at www.MACGYMO-HIO.com for entry information.

JUMP-START YOUR MORNING WITH A HEART-HEALTHIER BREAKFAST

(NAPSI)—A good breakfast is important, but some people skip it to save a few minutes in the morning. Planning ahead is one way to save time and fit in what some call the most important meal of the day. Try keeping a hearty make-ahead breakfast on-hand that doubles as a snack for on-the-go.

This easy-to-make nut and fruit granola recipe packs a heart-healthier punch with benefits like omega-3s from pistachios and Smart Balance, along with important vitamins, minerals and other nutrients.

To give your heart a jump-start in the morning, try this:

Homemade Coconut-Pistachio Granola

- ¼ teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup dried cherries or cranberries (optional)

Combine oats, coconut and pistachios in a large bowl. In a small bowl, whisk together melted butter,

PAULDING VOLLEYBALL FALLS TO ALLEN EAST MUSTANGS

JC Varner earns another kill in the third set for the Panthers. More pictures at westbendnews.net

The Lady Panthers started off the evening behind the Mustangs in the first set. The Paulding score was far behind at the beginning of the first match but soon they were within two near the 20 point mark. Allen East, though, regained the upper hand and soon took the first set.

For the Paulding girls, the second set was the closest match they fell to. The third match was a big win for the Lady Panthers which then brought the score 2-1.

The fourth set was the fallout for Paulding as the Mustangs blew away the girls' confidence and the score.

JV won in 3: 23-25, 25-19, 25-15

J.A.G. IN NEW HAVEN

By: Angel Windom
At New Haven High School, and many other high schools around the country, there is a program that is committed to helping young adults stay in school, graduate, go to college and secure an entry-level job during and after college. The JAG program (Jobs for Americas Graduates) helps students set and reach goals for themselves. The program is trying to develop future leaders for our nation.

At New Haven, the JAG program is run by Glynn Hines who has been a councilman for the city of Fort Wayne. Hines has raised over $150,000 in college scholarships for the youth in our community. He's working to see all students graduate and make a living in this world. He also encourages students to be involved in the community by volunteering and helping out in any way that they can. Hines is an active community volunteer, he serves on the boards for organizations like: Citilink Public Transit, United Way and the Knight Foundation.

The JAG program is growing both nationally and globally. There are over 700 schools providing the JAG program in the United States and United Kingdom. The program is for juniors and seniors but is limited on the number of students they can accept each year. If you would like to learn more about the JAG program, you can visit their website at www.jag.org or contact Glynn Hines at New Haven High School.

UPDATE ON HERB MONROE COMMUNITY PARK

The future "Herb Monroe Community Park" project is moving forward quite rapidly. The fountain in the center of the park will be installed very soon. The main difference, you'll notice if you drive by the location at the corner of Jackson and Main Street in Downtown Paulding is the greenery. Shrubs, plants, and trees are being brought in and planted on a daily basis. Along with the greenery, an irrigation system will soon be installed. The Paulding Chamber Board are so appreciative to the community members that have joined together to create this beautiful park... in the memory of an amazing man... Herb Monroe.

To follow the progress on a weekly basis, please follow us on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Herb-MonroeCommunityPark>

As sure as it's going to rain, the classifieds sell.

HUSTED APPOINTS WOBLER & TOOMAN TO THE PUTNAM COUNTY BOE

Secretary of State Jon Husted appointed Anthony J. Wobler and Carla S. Tooman as members of the Putnam County Board of Elections. Mr. Wobler and Ms. Tooman will complete the unexpired terms of Ann Dillinger and Martin Kuhlman. Ms. Dillinger and Mr. Kuhlman were recently removed from the board by Secretary Husted after being found to have violated Ohio's open meetings laws on multiple counts by the Putnam County Court of Common Pleas. State law requires bipartisan representation on each of Ohio's 88 county boards of elections. Each board is made up of two Republican members and two Democratic members, all of whom must be qualified electors in the counties for which they serve. The Secretary of State makes appointments to boards of elections based on the recommendations of the executive committees of the respective county political parties. Both Mr. Wobler and Ms. Tooman were recommended by the Putnam County Democratic Party.

MEETING NOTES OF APPOINTMENTS:

Tony Wilson - Wilson Interiors presented the Commissioners with an estimate to repair basement restroom floors in the courthouse. Mr. Wilson performed a test on existing pieces of tile for traces of lead. The test indicated they were lead free. Mr. Wilson also indicated that there is a potential moisture issue. In order for the floor to be warranted, it would take additional prep work to get the floors ready. A moisture test would need to be performed before proceeding with the project.

Marsha Yeutter - Senior Center, Ms. Yeutter briefly discussed the Integrated Care Delivery System that since the Senior Center is not a part of the pilot program, they are not required to enter in to a contract to participate at this time. Ms. Yeutter is also scouting for new van quotes.

Congressman Bob Latta and Mr. Ryan Mack visited Paulding County and met the Commissioners, Jim Langham, media; and Cindy Peters, Commissioner's Clerk for a tour with Mr. Brian Alberts and Mr. Shawn Gragg of EDP Renewables (Timber Road Wind Farm) in Payne, Ohio. EDP Renewables constructed the first utility-scale wind farm in Ohio, and now generates 99 MW of electricity in the Buckeye State. EDPR operates the Timber Road Wind Farm in Paulding County. Congressman Latta presented a variety of questions to Mr. Alberts and Mr. Gragg. The operation of Timber Road Wind Farm represents capital expenditures of over $40 million on clean, domestic energy for the state of Ohio. The impact of these projects has been felt locally with nearly 10 million of supplier spending and landowner compensation in the community surrounding Timber Road. There are 55 turbines in the Payne farm that each set approximately 1000' apart. The height of the turbine is 311' from the ground to the center of nose cone with each blade size consisting of 162' in length. The blades are now manufactured in Colorado and are individually mounted. They are able to take each turbine off grid in the event of an emergency while allowing power to the others since each one is independent of each other. Mr. Alberts indicated that each turbine can run at different speeds and will individually shut down if speed becomes excessive. EDPR wind farms also increase US energy independence and security. EDPR are global leaders in the renewable energy sector and the world's third largest wind energy company.

Congressman Bob Latta and the Commissioners then traveled to Latty, Ohio where they met with Mr. George Suvar. Mr. Suvar informed Congressman Latta that Mercer Landmark Inc and CHS Inc, are co-owners of Latty Grain Ltd. They have invested in additional dry fertilizer storage and a dry blend plant. The new 150 ft diameter dome with 18 ft concrete sidewalls adds 20,000 tons of single product or 5,000 tons each of two products. It will combine two Latty plants into a single dry fertilizer location with a total dry crop nutrient capacity of 47,500 tons. The plant can receive unit trains of product and ship in truck load quantities. CHS sources crop nutrients globally for the plant while Mercer Landmark distributes them to their branch locations for use on the farm. The high speed blending tower will increase efficiencies for several Mercer Landmark branch locations and have the capacity to blend 25 ton loads in six to eight minutes. It positions Mercer Landmark to better serve farmers with dry crop nutrients by minimizing handling and transportation. Mr. Suvar also informed Congressman Latta of the difficulty Latty Grain had in obtaining the building permit from the state.

The tour ended back at the Paulding County Courthouse Commissioner's Chambers with Congressman Latta briefly speaking with elected officials Ann Pease, Lou Ann Wannemacher, Carol Temple and Claudia Fickel. Mr. Latta commented that companies all over the world are stating that they want to move to the United States due to our natural gas. The biggest problem is not having the energy, it's transporting it.

FLAT ROCK LODGE #580 ANNUAL ALL YOU CAN EAT SPAGHETTI SUPPER

Flat Rock Masonic Lodge #580 is again planning their Annual "All You Can Eat" Spaghetti Supper for Thursday, September 26, from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. at St. Jacob's UCC in Payne. The meal includes salad, dessert, Texas Toast and beverage. Free-will donations will be received. The proceeds from the dinner will benefit Special Olympics in Ohio.

For more than thirty years, Special Olympics athletes have held a prominent place in the outreach of Ohio Freemasonry. During that period, Ohio Masons have contributed more than $3.8 million to help pay the costs of the Special Olympians attending the program's annual Summer Games in Columbus. This last year marked the seventh consecutive year that the Ohio Masons have given at least $175,000 to the Summer Games. However, in addition to financial support, the Masons host a welcome center for Special Olympics athletes and their families, provide volunteer help during the statewide Summer Games competition and participate in the Parade of Athletes during the opening ceremonies. The Ohio Special Olympics program provides year-round sports training and competition opportunities for more than 21,000 children and adults with intellectual disabilities. Special Olympics contributes to the physical, social, and psychological development of the athletes. Through successful experience in sports, they gain confidence and build a positive self-image which carries over into the classroom, home, job, and community. There are approximately 125 local and area events and Ohio Special Olympics hosts eight statewide competitions each year, covering 22 sports. Nearly 2,600 athletes attend the Summer Games at the athletic facilities of The Ohio State University.

USDA'S FARM SERVICE AGENCY REMINDS PRODUCERS OF IMPORTANT SEPTEMBER DEADLINES FOR THE DIRECT & COUNTER-CYCLICAL PROGRAM (DCP)

a succession-in-interest include:

- sale of land
- change of operator or producer, including an increase or decrease in the number of partners
- foreclosure, bankruptcy or involuntary loss of the farm
- change in producer shares to reflect changes in the producer's share of the crop(s) that were originally approved on the contract.

"In the event of a succession-in-interest, the 'predecessor,' is required to refund any advance DCP payments received for the affected base acres before a payment can be made to the 'successor,'" said Maurer. "Failure to report a succession-in-interest can result in contract termination and a loss of program benefits for all producers involved."

Steve Maurer, the Ohio Farm Service Agency (FSA) State Executive Director, reminds producers of two important Direct and Counter-Cyclical Program (DCP) deadlines this month.

Maurer reminds producers that any succession-in-interest changes made to an operation that affect interest in base acres since the current DCP contract on file was signed, must be reported to the local FSA office by close of business Monday, September 30, 2013.

STATEMENT FROM STATE SEN. DENNIS KRUSE

State Sen. Dennis Kruse (R-Auburn) made the following statement regarding the Senate Democrats pre-k proposal:

"I appreciated Sen. Lanane's comments today (September 12, 2013), and we welcome his input in the ongoing conversation about early education for Hoosier children.

"The budget the legislature passed earlier this year set aside $4 million for an early education pilot program. Although it's too early to have the results, it will be interesting to see what impact those programs have on our children.

"I look forward to exploring this topic in the future."

ODOT CONSTRUCTION & MAINTENANCE PROJECTS WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 16, 2013

Did you know this transportation fact...? There will be an estimated 216,161 square yards of concrete placed on Interstate 75 when the current project in Allen County from just south of Fourth Street to Ohio 81 is complete. That would be enough concrete to construct a building that would fill a football field and stand five stories high. Interstate 75 Reconstruction Project: For the most recent information concerning the Interstate 75 reconstruction project through Lima and Allen County, and the safety upgrade of Ohio 117/309 on Lima's east side please visit: www.odotlima75.org

- Interstate 75 between Fourth Street and Ohio 81 in Lima will have occasional nighttime lane restrictions during reconstruction of the existing lanes of pavement, replacement of mainline bridges and reconstruction of the interchanges. Work began in March 2013 and will continue through fall of 2015. Traffic is maintained two lanes in each direction the majority of the time. Lane restrictions generally occur from 7:00 p.m. until 10:00 a.m. the following morning. The following is project information for the coming week:

Ohio 117/309 interchange: —The entrance ramp to Interstate 75 northbound from Ohio 117/309 is closed as of August 29 for at least one month to allow for construction of the new northbound ramp and new northbound pavement on Interstate 75.

—Traffic on Ohio 117/309 eastbound wishing to access I-75 northbound will be directed to Ohio 117, Greely Chapel Road to Fourth Street back to I-75. Ohio 117/309 westbound will be directed to Lost Creek Boulevard, Ohio 117, Greely Chapel Road and Fourth Street back to I-75.

Fourth Street interchange: —The southbound entrance and exit ramps at Fourth Street remain closed for reconstruction. The ramps are expected to be reopened by the end of September. Traffic is detoured to the Ohio 65 interchange then north on Ohio 65 (St. Johns Road) to Fourth Street. Electronic message boards have been placed on Interstate 75 advising motorists to use Ohio 65. Northbound ramps are open.

I-75 Mainline: —Traffic on I-75 northbound has been switched onto the new concrete pavement from just south of Fourth Street to a point prior to the Ohio 117/309 interchange where traffic is then transitioned back to the existing pavement. This will allow crews to complete the construction of the new concrete pavement at the south end of the project.

—Paving of the new lanes on Interstate 75 in the northbound direction outside the barrier wall from just south of Fourth Street to Ohio 117/309 is completed at this time. Paving in the southbound lanes from south of Fourth Street to the Ohio 117/309 interchange is under way. Traffic on Interstate 75 could be affected at times. Motorists are cautioned to watch for concrete trucks entering and exiting the highway over the next several weeks as the operation continues.

—Motorists should be aware that all entrance and exit ramp merge areas have been shortened throughout the project area. Drivers on Interstate 75 are encouraged to use the passing lane through the zone if they do not wish to exit. Signs advising this have been placed throughout the project area.

• Ohio 117/309 is two lanes in each direction without a center turn lane from just east of the interchange with Interstate 75 to Bowman Road during a safety upgrade project which will reconstruct areas of the pavement and install a raised curb median in the center of the roadway. All traffic is currently traveling on the north side of the roadway while work takes place on the south. Only two lanes of traffic are maintained, one lane in each direction, from Willard Avenue (Speedway) to the west of the Interstate 75 interchange. This part of the project will be completed this fall.

—Roschman Avenue at the intersection with Ohio 117/309 east of Interstate 75 will close at midnight Thursday, September 12 and will reopen at 6:00 a.m. Friday, September 13 for installation of a storm sewer. Access to businesses in the area will be available from Motel Avenue at Greely Chapel Road. The attached graphic shows the work area and where alternative access will be available.

• Ohio 81 from just west of Stewart Road to just west of Neubrecht Road east of Lima is one lane in each direction in the existing eastbound lanes for pavement reconstruction. All ramp movements are currently maintained at the interchange with Interstate 75.

Defiance County: Pavement repair will occur at the following locations during the week with traffic maintained through the work zone. Work is being performed by Defiance and Paulding County ODOT:

—Ohio 15 between the Defiance/Putnam County line and Carter Road

—Ohio 18 between Sherwood and the Ohio 15/18 split

Ohio 15 from the city of Defiance to the Williams County line restricted to one lane through the work zone intermittently for pavement repair and resurfacing. Work is being performed by Gerken Paving, Inc., Napoleon.

Paulding County: Ohio 49 on the south end of the village of Antwerp will close for one day on September 16 for drainage work. Traffic detoured onto U.S. 24, U.S. 127 and County Road 424 back to Ohio 49. Work is being performed by Lentz Construction for the village of Antwerp.

Ohio 111 in the village of Paulding is now open.

Putnam County: U.S. 224 a half mile west of the village of Kalida to the CSX railroad in the village of Ottawa will be restricted to one lane through the work zone for pavement repair and
