

BEVERLY HILLBILLIES STOP IN PAULDING

Granny takes nothin' from no one!

Perhaps you have watched the TV show from nearly 50 years ago or you just wanted to have an enjoyable time watching the young people of Paulding High School perform on stage, either way we were all entertained. The Clampetts have a fine home, cabin, err.... shack, in the lovely hills of the Ozark Mountains when one day someone from the oil industry heard there was a black, slimy, swamp in the Clampett's backyard.

Jed and his clan hit the road for California.

Who would have known what a welcoming they would receive in such lovely estates as Beverly Hills. The crustiest of the uppercrust society are ready to take their money, uh..., them into their new high society lifestyle.

The show stars Kaity Roughton, Nicholas Hitchcock, Gerod Harder, Rachel Nicelley, Guy Harder (as Jethro!!!), Kastin Kelly, Alex Schlegel, Laurel Werhrkamp and a host of other student actors and stage hands.

Don't miss this homebrew show of Elly May (Kas-tin Kelly) beatin' up the boys and Granny waving her guns, and Jethro (Gerod Harder) showin' his smarts, impressing all the ladies around! The Paulding Fire Department even participated in putting some of fires out Granny started. And what a twist for a curtain call!

The show was on stage Friday, March 21 and Saturday, March 22, at the Paulding High School Auditoria. What a load of laughs!

VOTING IS EASY IN OHIO

Guest Column by: Ohio Secretary of State Jon Husted

To all Ohio voters: There has been a lot of discussion about recent changes in the voting laws. Some of that discussion has informed and some of it has misled. As the chief elections official in our state I want you to have the facts about how easy it is to vote in Ohio. Please use it to guide your many choices in casting a ballot in General Election this November.

Option 1 - Vote by Mail

Around Labor Day, my office will be sending all registered voters an application to vote by mail. Complete it, return it in the envelope provided and your ballot will be mailed to you starting 28 days before the election. Then, when it is most convenient for you and from the comfort of your own home, you can fill out your ballot.

Many will choose to mail it back in the security envelope provided, never having to leave home to vote. Still others will choose to drop it off at the board of elections - either way your ballot will be counted as part of the official tally on Election Day.

Option 2 - Vote Early In Person

Beginning on October 7, 2014, and over the course of four weeks, you can go to your local board of elections during regular business hours to cast your ballot in person. To accommodate voters who cannot go during the week, your board of elections will also be open for voting from 8 am to 4 pm on the two Saturdays before the Election. This bipartisan voting schedule was recommended by local Republican and Democratic elections officials and will be the same in each of the 88 Ohio counties, ensuring all voters have equal access to the polls no matter where they live.

Option 3 - Election Day

And let's not forget Election Day itself, when polls close to your home will be open from 6:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m.

With absentee voting starting 28 days before the election, Ohio remains above the national average for access to voting. Many of our surrounding states, including Michigan, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and New York don't even provide an early voting option. In addition, with the exception of states that vote exclusively by mail, Ohio has been the only state to send absentee ballot applications to all voters ahead of the election. These steps meant that Ohioans did not experience long lines at the polls that other states did in 2012 when approximately one in three Ohio voters chose to vote prior to Election Day. In fact, independent studies said the wait time in Ohio was 11 minutes.

Ohio is the most important swing state in the nation and as Secretary of State, I will continue to work to build the best system of elections in the nation where it will continue to be easy to vote and hard to cheat.

For additional information on voting in 2014, I encourage you to visit www.MyOhioVote.com.

Our lives go on without you but nothing is the same. We have to hide our heartaches when someone speaks your name. Sad are the hearts that love you, silent the tears that fall, living our hearts without you is the hardest part of all. You did so many things for us, your heart was kind and true, and when we needed someone we could always count on you. The special years will not return when we were all together, but with the love within our hearts, you will walk with us forever.

About Erin's House for Grieving Children:

Erin's House was founded in 1993 in honor of all grieving children and their families. The idea for Erin's House was created when a 5-year old Fort Wayne girl named Erin Farragh died unexpectedly in 1989; the subsequent grief her surviving brother and sister experienced inspired the adults in their lives to take this idea and grow it into what it is today. To date, the organization has served more than 15,000 individuals throughout northeast Indiana, and it continues to provide support services for children, teens and their families who have suffered the death of a loved one. As an industry center for excellence, Erin's House is continually reviewing its programs and services to ensure they are effective for children, teens and their families. All Erin's House programs and services are provided at no cost.

BIBLE QUESTIONS

By: James Potter, Oakwood church of Christ

1. Luke 11:33 - What are we not to put in a secret place?
2. Luke 11:33 - Where are we to put the lit lamp?
3. Luke 11:33 - Why would we want to sit the lamp on a lamp stand?
4. Luke 11:33-36 - Who is the light in these verses?
5. Luke 11:37 - What did the Pharisee ask Jesus?
6. Luke 11:38 - What was it, the Pharisee saw?
7. Luke 11:39 - What did the Pharisees make clean?
8. Luke 11:39 - What should they have made clean?
9. Luke 11:40 - What did Jesus call the Pharisees?
10. Luke 11:40 - Who made the outside and the inside?

Comments or questions?

Call James Potter at 419-393-4775 or Lonnie Lambert at 419-399-5022. Jesus loves you and so does the Oakwood church of Christ.

Answers to this week's questions:

1. A lit lamp.; 2. On a lamp stand.; 3. So other may see the light.; 4. Jesus.; 5. To dine with Him; 6. That Jesus did not wash before dinner.; 7. The outside of the cup and dish.; 8. Their inward part; 9. Foolish ones.; 10. God.

Now let us look at some things we have been studying. V 33 - a lamp is meant to give light to those near it, verse 36. Jesus had publicly exhibited the light of the Gospel for all to see "a wicked generation".

V 29 requested more spectacular signs, the problem was not with any failure on Jesus part, giving light, and it was with the faculty vision of His audience. Those asking for a sign do not need more light; they need a clear conscience to allow the light to enter.

V 38 - not ceremonially washed; not commanded by law but added in the tradition of men. You put tradition before God's Holy Word; it will cause you to lose your soul.

V 39 - engage in ceremonial washings of the body, but left the inside dirty with sin. Robbery and wickedness in this verse: The Pharisees were more concerned about keeping ceremonies than about being moral.

V 40 - makes the inside also: The inside of man (the heart and inner righteousness) is more important than the outside. (Ceremonial cleansing.)

OXYGEN ISN'T ENOUGH

Listen to the news, consider the interest earned on your savings account, watch the unemployment statistics climb... things don't look particularly hopeful. People lose faith, are discouraged at their situations, and feel downright dried-up. But one local arts organization wants to share a different message—there is a way to be renewed... you just need to breathe. Not the air outside (though that is helpful), but take a big breath from God. That's what 60 area dancers will communicate through their upcoming ministry event on Saturday and Sunday, May 3-4 at 6:00 p.m. The River Dance Company, not to be confused with the Broadway "Riverdance" production, is a non-profit studio that celebrates the creative arts with a Christ-centered perspective using ballet, lyrical, jazz, hip-hop, and modern dance forms, along with music and drama, to communicate the heart of God.

"Our goal is to train dancers' bodies, minds and spirits, and to develop in them the desire to worship God through dance and the creative arts," states Monica Gingerich, the Company's Creative Director and Ministry Coach. Now in its twelfth season, RDC instructs students of various ages and skill levels each week, with a decidedly Christian emphasis. Time is also given to Bible instruction as well as proper use of creative worship tools including flags, streamers, tambourines and banners.

At present, finishing touches are being put on their current production, "Just Breathe," to be presented free of charge in the Family Life Center of Central Ministries, State Road 37, on Saturday and Sunday, May 3-4 at 6:00 p.m. Sixty dancers ages 3 through adults, from more than 20 area churches, will present this moving combination of dance, drama, music and lighting with live worship led by Doug Hood of Central Ministries.

Central Church is conveniently located off I-469 at exit #25, just east of the interstate. The River Dance Company, Fort Wayne, will be open for new student enrollment in June. Learn more about this Christ-centered dance company by calling 260-267-0664 or visiting www.RiverDanceCompany.org.

HAVE YOU MOURNED WITH THOSE WHO MOURN?

Winning the Battle for a Generation by: Rick Jones, Defiance Area YFC

One of the great take-aways of Jesus coming in flesh and then subjecting himself to all the fears of humanity is Jesus identifies with us in our suffering and shame. For example, Christian doctor and author John White writes...

John White tells the story of his days as a medical student. For one of his classes, he missed a practicum about venereal disease and had to make it up at the clinic. When he arrived at the clinic he ended up in a line with a bunch of patients who had actually contracted a venereal disease. White barged up to the front and told the head nurse, "I need to see the doctor."

"That's what everybody says," snorted the nurse, "now get in line."

"But I'm a medical student."

"Big deal," said the nurse, "You got it the same way as everybody else; now you can stand in line like everybody else."

John White writes:

In the end I managed to explain to her why I was there, but I can still feel the sense of shame that made me balk at standing in line with the other men who had a venereal disease. Yet Jesus shunned shame as he [went to the cross]. And the moral gulf that separated him from us was far greater than that separating me from the men at the clinic... But he crossed the gulf, joining our ranks, embraced us and still remained pure. He identified with those he came to save. He became like us.

Regarding Jesus practice to identify with humanity, the writer to Hebrews writes... Hebrews 4:15 (NIV), "For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin."

ELECTION ADVISORY FROM OHIO SECRETARY OF STATE JON HUSTED

Secretary of State Jon Husted announced that absentee voting for military and overseas voters begins Saturday, March 22, 2014, for the 2014 Primary Election. Ohioans will vote on primary races for a number of statewide and local candidates, as well as decide the outcome of a statewide ballot issue and more than 600 local issues.

Election Ballot Issues:
 Voters can review the ballot language and summary for State Issue 1: Capital Improvements - General Obligation Bonds here. Information on the 614 local issues on the ballot, including school and local tax levies, bond issues and charter amendments.
Military & Overseas Voting:
 County Boards of Elections will begin mailing absentee ballots to registered military and overseas voters who have requested a ballot on Saturday, March 22, 45 days ahead of the election. Military and overseas voters who have not yet submitted a request for an absentee ballot may visit www.OhioMilitaryVotes.com to download an application and/or contact their county board of elections. Requests must be received by county boards of elections no later than noon on May 3, 2014, but should be sent as soon as possible to allow adequate time for processing, mailing and the return of the voted ballots.
Absentee Voting by Mail (for All Other Voters): Boards will mail out absentee ballots beginning April 1, 2014, to those who have requested them. Voters must complete, sign and seal their voted ballots, taking care to provide the required information, including proper identification. Voted ballots must be postmarked the day before Election Day and received no later than the 10th day after the election (May 16, 2014). Absentee ballots may also be delivered in person to boards of elections no later than the close of the polls on Election Day. They may not be returned at polling locations.

All other voters have until Saturday, May 3rd at noon to request an absentee ballot by mail and they may do so by contacting their county board of elections for more information, or by downloading an absentee ballot request form at MyOhioVote.com.

In-Person Absentee Voting:
 In-person absentee voting begins April 1, 2014, or 35 days before the election. To ensure all Ohio voters have the same amount of time to vote in person early, Secretary Husted issued Directive 2014-06, establishing uniform hours statewide so all voters have fair and equal access to the ballot during 2014 elections.

Register to Vote/Update Your Address:
 The deadline to register to vote for the May 6 Primary Election is April 7, 2014 (30 days prior to the election). Voter registration forms are available at MyOhioVote.com or from local boards of elections and other designated agencies, such as libraries and BMVs. Should voters have moved since the last election, they should also act now to update their voting address online at MyOhioVote.com.

Check Your Registration:
 Not sure where to vote or if your voting address is up to date? Voters can easily check their voter registration information, including voting address and polling location, online at MyOhioVote.com. The system is populated with information from county boards of elections. It is important to note that boards may make a last minute change to a person's polling place that would not be reflected online, but voters would be notified by mail. Questions about information contained in the online system should be directed to the county boards of elections.

Election Day Voting:
 Polls are open 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. on Election Day. Voters choosing to head to the polls on Election Day need to remember to bring the proper form of ID and know their polling place and precinct. Voters can check their polling place and precinct and get other important voting information by visiting www.MyOhioVote.com.

Get Elections Updates and Ohio's Virtual Voting Sticker:
 Ohio voters are encouraged to link with "OhioSOSHusted" on Facebook and Twitter to get elections information and updates throughout the year. Here they can also get a virtual voting sticker badge to let their friends and followers know they've participated in the election, whether they chose to cast their ballots by mail or in person. Facebook users simply need to "like" Ohio Secretary of State Jon Husted's official Facebook page to "wear" a virtual sticker on their wall. Twitter users may share their voting badge by visiting the Secretary of State's website.

Vote in Honor of a Veteran:
 With Vote in Honor of a Veteran, voters may also demonstrate the pride they feel for a veteran by dedicating their vote to them. By participating in this program Ohioans help raise awareness about the importance of voting and highlight the powerful bond between our veterans and democracy. For more information on how to participate in this program visit www.OhioMilitaryVotes.com

THE NORTH SIDE OF DAGGETT STREET IN THE 1930'S

By: Stan Jordan

We start at the very east end of Daggett Street on the north side. As I remember a number of renters lived there. The first I remember is Amos Bickhard, and they had two boys. The next house was the Clyde Quantance residence. Mrs. Quantance lived to be over 100. The next house had a number of renters, but I think at this time it was Major Harris. The next house was the Herbert Cowell home, and they had two daughters. Edward Carr lived on the corner, and he was the city water superintendent for many years. The next house was across Erie Street and some people named Burgess, Luce, and a man named Manuel Lefler, a WWI veteran, lived there. We jump up west past the fire station and where the EMS building is now, was the home of Arch Barnhart. The next house was the home of Nellie Terwilliger; and then later on, Dale Swann.

Pearl Longberry lived on the corner of Daggett and Monroe. Across Monroe was the home of Ray Putman. He drove a truck for J.B. Johnson Furniture Company. Later on, he operated Ray's Restaurant. The next house was a Mr. Miller, and the next house was the home of Guy Sackryder. The next house on the corner was people named Gatton and Cristo. The next was the home of Dewy Byers. Then came the Jennings Grueter family's home. Then was the home of Bert Major, Sr., and after that, the home of Griswald and Coles. The last house on that side of the street was John Franklin, Sr. That takes us to the Wentworth Road.

GEORGE & SARAH JORDAN

By: Stan Jordan

The above picture is taken from Mr. Ehrhart's book, Antwerp's 100 Years of Progress, published in 1941. That is my grandparents, George and Sarah Jordan. They were Antwerp's oldest married couple at that time.

Grandpa George J. Jordan was born in Harrisburg, PA August 22, 1859. His parents were Samuel and Hanna Jordan. Grandma was born in Randolph County, IN in January 1859 nee Sarah Emery. Her parents were Simeon and Phoebe Southwood Emery.

My grandparents, George and Sarah, were married in Allen County, IN in April of 1877. In March of 1878 they had a son, Heinrich Adam. He died as an infant and was buried in Milan Township in Allen County, IN. In March of 1879 they had another son, John Henry Jordan, born in Allen County, IN. In 1880 a daughter, Christina H. was born.

In March 1885, they were living in Salem Township in Allen County, Kansas with Sarah's father.

I think there were lots of trouble with robbers, mountain lions and Indians as they lived in a sod hut, so they ended up back up in Indiana.

On June 2, 1886, a son, George Simeon was born in Allen County, IN. In February, 1890, a son, Samuel Edward was born in Allen County, IN. In August 1896 my father, William Bryan, was born. This was in a small house at the northwest corner of US 24 and the Bull Rapids Road.

Then they moved to Harrison Township in Paulding County, OH at the crossroads of SR 111 and SR 49.

A daughter, Golda, was born here in 1901. I think Grandma and Grandpa had 26 grandchildren and most of them had passed away.

Great-grandpa Samuel Jordan died in Milan Township, IN in 1916, he was sort of a hermit. He died in the area of Thurman. His wife had been dead for over 30 years. As I remember, Grandpa chewed Mail Pouch Chewing Tobacco most of the time. I liked to eat at Grandma's house, she was a good cook and made the best sugar cookies.

I am indebted to two of my nieces for a lot of this information—Judy Copsy and her sister, Laurie Manon. Thanks a lot girls.
See ya!

CAPITAL BUDGET ADVANCES LOCAL PROJECTS, INVESTS IN JOB CREATION

Senator Cliff Hite (R-Findlay) announced the introduction of Ohio's 2014 Capital Budget, which provides local investment dollars to support individual communities' construction priorities. The bill funds needed improvements to public facilities across the state including schools, colleges and universities, and parks.

The legislature generally approves a capital budget every two years in order to fund pressing construction and maintenance projects around the state. The plan also serves as an important mechanism in creating Ohio jobs and moving the state's economy forward.

"These funds will help spruce up our local attractions, improve infrastructure, and add capacity at our colleges," said Hite. "I'm elated that our area received so much positive attention in this year's capital budget."

Once fully enacted, Ohio's proposed new public construction budget will create approximately 31,000 new jobs over the next several years from the $2.386 billion it injects into needed repairs, maintenance and construction of publicly owned buildings and other infrastructure at the state and local level.

The capital budget includes:

- $675 million for local school construction, including repairs, renovations and new primary and secondary education facilities;
- $454.5 million for Ohio's 37 public colleges and universities;
- $369 million for local infrastructure projects administered by the Ohio Public Works Commission, including upgrades, replacement and new construction of local roads and bridges, storm and sanitary sewers, water lines and other vital infrastructure;
- $100 million for the Clean Ohio program to improve outdoor recreational opportunities and fund the preservation of open spaces and farmlands;
- $574.3 million for maintenance and renovations at state-owned facilities including Ohio State Parks, state prisons, mental health facilities and other public facilities.

Details of the Capital Budget Bill can be found at: www.obm.ohio.gov/SectionPages/Budget/Capital.aspx

PAULDING CO. CHAPTER OF THE OHIO GENEALOGY SOCIETY NEWS

Well folks this cold, snowy winter, looks to be over and we can get back to regular monthly meetings. January and March 2014 meetings were canceled due to inclement weather conditions.

Paulding Co. library approached our society for help in the Genealogy Department. Upcoming Free Basic Genealogy Workshop on Saturday March 29, 2014 from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., 2nd floor, P.C. Library, where you will find our PCCOGS members volunteering their time helping anyone who wants to learn how to research your ancestors or just general help using the many resources available. This will consist of using ancestor charts, microfilm, obituary files, vital record indexes, census records, and Ancestry.com on the library's computer. If it's well-received it will become a periodical event. Watch for the Library's next volunteer help session in this newspaper.

February 12th meeting we heard excerpts from "Charlie Bissell's Journal" by Kelly Taylor. A copy of the journal helped us to learn of over two hundred obituaries, local news, family's activities and much more from articles cut from newspapers or daily penciled entries. A call to Stanley Jordan proved interesting. He knew of Charlie (a.k.a. C.A. Bissell), but only a few facts about him. He died after 1940 when Stan was about 17 years old. Bissell held several Council positions beginning April 1887, one being Mayor with the longest number of consecutive terms in the history of Antwerp.

Some interesting information about early Paulding County - Did you know?

The County has no basins; every acre is drainable. There is no boggy or swampy land. Where drained it is solid and every acre can be drained and cultivated. They are beginning to tile extensively and many tile factories are scattered over the county; the tiles varying from two-and-a-half to ten inches.

(Source: <http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/>)

At the April 9th meeting, we will resume with our regular meetings with watching a movie about Johnson's Island. The cancelled March meeting was to research through Baker/Parrish very early books from the New England states, this will be worked in as time allows. Most meetings are held at the Paulding Co. Carnegie Library, ground floor meeting room at 6:30 p.m. on the 2nd Wednesday monthly. Everyone is welcome!

BANISH THE DIET

The Nurturing Well by: Jill Starbuck

For health reasons, we should all abandon the word "diet." That's right. Diet is a four-letter word that conjures up anxiety, failure, depression, irritability, and deprivation. For many of us, "diet" refers to a temporary fix. Fad diets flood the internet, television, magazines, books, and more. But that's all they are, a fad. They eventually lose their appeal.

According to Boston Medical Center, approximately 45 million Americans each year try a diet and spend approximately $33 billion on diets. The sad news is that only 20% of people who attempt a diet lose weight and maintain the weight loss. For the rest, they eventually put the weight back on—sometimes more. Statistics also show that diets are doing nothing for our country as an overwhelming number of people fall into the overweight or obese category—nearly 70%! That's a lot of people spending a lot of money to set themselves up for failure.

So why are diets failing, even though Americans have the best intentions? Most of these diets are unrealistic. They drastically restrict calories; eliminate food groups; reduce the amount of carbohydrates, protein, or fat without taking into account the individual; or they entice us to buy manufactured shakes, bars, and other supplements. Every person requires an individual formula in order to succeed. Sometimes it takes a process of elimination to figure it out. In contrast, outlined diets such as fad diets that anyone can try simply do not work for every individual. These types of diets lead to fatigue, nutrient deficiencies, dehydration, and a number of other side effects.

Rather than trying a "diet," focus on changing your eating habits. Reach for more natural foods such as fresh fruits and vegetables, nuts, grains, and unprocessed meat. Realistically, we will be tempted by processed foods. However, if we eat healthy the majority of the time, we are bound to feel better, have fewer health ailments, and weigh less. But this process can take a while since we are surrounded by packaged food and other foods that lead to addiction—such as sugar-laden products. Take small steps by weeding out processed foods, such as most boxed or frozen meals.

If we are going to spend billions of dollars to try a diet, then we should seek a doctor, a nutritionist, or a health coach who can provide a better guideline than a one-for-all fad diet. These experts can factor in any special dietary needs, allergies, calorie requirements, and more. The best thing to do is to banish diets forever and change your eating habits today. After a while, you become used to the new way of eating and diet as we know it today becomes a thing of the past. It simply becomes the way you eat.

NUTRITION LINE FOR YOUTH ATHLETES

110Athletics has announced a new line of sports nutrition products aimed at serving the unique needs of one of the largest groups of athletes in the country: youth athletes.

With delicious formulas developed by dietitians and sports-nutritionists, the 110Athletics sports nutrition wafers are geared to meet the specific needs of athletes playing basketball, soccer, football, and volleyball. A fifth product was also designed to meet the needs of competitive athletes in other sports, ensuring that any athlete looking to step up their game can find a 110Athletics product that's right for them.

"We're extremely excited the product is ready to be enjoyed by young athletes, shared Aaron Knight, founder of 110Athletics. "It's exactly what the sports nutrition category was missing."

The new products from 110Athletics have been developed for a youth athletics audience that has traditionally been underserved. With approximately 45 million Americans between the ages of 6-17 participating in some form of competitive athletics, many of those athletes have been forced to turn to sports nutrition options originally developed for adult athletes.

110Athletics sports nutrition wafers take the guesswork out of fueling young athletes. The launch of these sports nutrition wafers brings certainty to youth athletes, offering guides for how to best use the products to make sure athletes can perform at their peak from kickoff until the final whistle.

In addition to helping fuel young athletes, 110Athletics will be fueling the Fort Wayne economy by bringing 50-100 full time positions to the area in the next three to five years.

Athletes, parents and sports organizations interested in learning more about the benefits of 110Athletics sports nutrition wafers are encouraged to visit www.110Athletics.com, where they can order 110Athletics sports nutrition wafers directly from 110Athletics. They can also sign up to become a member of 110 Club and score discounts for everyone in their youth athletics organization or league. 110Athletics also donates back to each organization involved in the 110 Club in an effort to continually support young athletes.

About 110Athletics: 110Athletics is a sports nutrition company based in Fort Wayne, IN. 110Athletics was founded with one purpose: to provide athletes with the nutrition they need to give 110% in their sport. Through work with coaches, dietitians and sports nutritionists, 110Athletics continually strives to offer delicious, nutritious and scientifically formulated products that improve performance in young athletes.

LATTA PROVISION INCLUDED IN STELA REAUTHORIZATION BILL

The House Energy and Commerce Committee's Communications and Technology Subcommittee held a hearing to discuss the reauthorization of the Satellite Television Extension and Localism Act (STELA), legislation providing satellite subscribers access to broadcast television on March 12, 2014. Last week, the Committee released a discussion draft of legislation to reauthorize STELA, which included language from H.R. 3196, a bill sponsored by Congressman Bob Latta (R-Bowling Green), Vice-Chairman of the Subcommittee.

"I am pleased that the Committee has brought forth legislation to reauthorize STELA and incorporated language from my bill, H.R. 3196, that eliminates the 'integration ban' regulation on leased set-top boxes," said Latta. "The integration ban has forced consumers to pay higher prices for leased boxes and imposed additional energy consumption costs, resulting in more than $1 billion in costs for consumers and businesses and impeding investment and innovation. At a time when technological advancements are occurring at an unprecedented pace, Congress must empower market participants to flexibly and efficiently meet the ever-evolving demands of the consumer. Elimination of the integration ban is a step toward fulfilling that congressional responsibility. I want to thank Subcommittee Chairman Walden and Committee Chairman Upton for including this provision in the STELA reauthorization draft, and I look forward to working with members of the Committee to ensure this legislation becomes law."

H.R. 3196 has received bi-partisan support with Congressman Gene Green (D-TX), Congressman John Shimkus (R-IL), Congressman John Dingell (D-MI), Congressman John Barrow (D-GA), Congressman Ed Whitfield (R-KY), Congressman Jim Matheson (D-UT) and Congresswoman Marsha Blackburn (R-TN) as cosponsors. The integration ban language has also received support from the National Black Chamber of Commerce and the League of Rural Voters.

The STELA reauthorization draft extends the provisions in the Communications Act that allow satellite providers to offer these distant signals for five years. It also eliminates the sweeps week prohibition on signal changes. Finally, it includes Congressman Latta's provision from H.R. 3196, eliminating the section of the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) rules that require CableCARDs in leased set-top boxes. This provision will give cable companies more set-top box flexibility, allowing the FCC

WT 21ST CENTURY AFTER SCHOOL STUDENTS LEARN JOB SKILLS

Wayne Trace 21st Century after school students recently visited Kathy Cadwallader, owner of Dairy Queen in Paulding.

In the weeks prior to the field trip the students worked through the process of successfully filling out a job application. The completed applications were dropped off at Dairy Queen for Kathy to review and provide valuable feedback to the group. On the day of the visit, she shared "helpful hints" when preparing for an interview and qualities that she looks for in a good employee.

Lastly, they toured the facility and enjoyed a tasty treat! If you are interested in sharing information about your job/career with our students, please contact our Program Coordinator, Ashley Shepherd at ashepherd@wb.noacsc.org or 419-399-4711.

to use other means to regulate the set-top box marketplace.

At the end of 2014, the provisions that allow satellite providers to transmit distant signals to 1.5 million unserved households will expire, unless Congress reauthorizes these provisions. Distant signals are used to serve subscribers in markets where satellite providers do not offer local programming and in unserved parts of the country, where one of the four national broadcast networks does not have an over-the-air affiliate.

ANTWERP OFFERS NEW EDUCATIONAL OPTIONS FOR 2014-15 SCHOOL YEAR

Olivia Tempel, Samantha Provines, and Parker Swenson, all students at Antwerp High School looking over the new online courses available next year.

With a recent grant awarded, along with other schools, Antwerp will offer many new options for the next year. Parents and students wanting to look into new opportunities should contact the school.

You may be asking, "What is this? I can take Photography, Chinese, and Animation? Wow!" Options are more available than anytime in Antwerp educational history.

The consortium Antwerp Local Schools is a part of integrates public schooling and homeschooling into one. Current Antwerp High School students will have the opportunity to choose from twelve AP classes and 80 electives not currently offered in the district.

Students who are attending other online schools or being homeschooled could study at home and be helped by teachers when they need it at the school. Pupils may participate in intra- or extracurricular activities, such as band, choir, football, or even video game programming along with their friends. These students will still be enrolled in Antwerp Local Schools, but study from home or the school through their new NOVA website.

You may think this is K12, ECOT, or something similar. In some ways it is, but in many more ways it is much better. The child will still be connected with the local school district and the brick and mortar school, but with great expanded learning options.

Northwest Ohio Virtual Academy, along with Antwerp, is a collaboration between Fayette, Edgerton, Holgate, Liberty Center and 13 other schools. NOVA is able to have the young people receive the local school diplomas, with the liberties that may come from education at home or education that wouldn't normally be available along with participating in the sports programs. Local Teachers will be able to help when there are questions for the student.

Pat Ross, Superintendent stated, "We believe the brick and mortar school still provides the best education for most students, but realize there are exceptions. This is really a great opportunity to get the people involved locally and still school from home if that is necessary. It also brings the attendance benefits back to the school district that has been lost to online education only." Some kids may have had problems with local education or online education, and this brings the best of both worlds together, enhancing a tailor-made education for the student.

Another great aspect Antwerp and the NOVA consortium is able to offer summer credits, including ACT Prep classes.

The grant received by entire group of schools will cover the NOVA Learning Center site and it will including the software, marketing and the computers needed for the new program.

A commercial promoting the new educational advantages was made with local students promoting the new programs available because of the collaboration. The two students from Antwerp in the production where Beth Hawley and Matthew Dooley. Check it out at this link:

NEW LAKE ERIE BIRDING TRAIL GUIDEBOOK COLLECTS BEST BIRDING LOCATIONS IN OHIO

The Ohio Department of Natural Resources (ODNR) Division of Wildlife and Ohio Sea Grant at Ohio State University have released the Lake Erie Birding Trail Guidebook, a 232-page compilation of 88 popular and less well-known birding locations all along Ohio's Lake Erie coast, from Ashtabula to Toledo. In addition to locations of parks and other birding spots, the book lists commonly sighted species and noteworthy rarities, park amenities, and online resources for visitors.

"Lake Erie and its environs are the premier birding destination in Ohio, and in the entire Great Lakes region," says Jim McCormac of ODNR. "Nearly 400 species have been found along the Ohio shoreline, and migration periods see enormous numbers of songbirds and waterbirds. Many Lake Erie birders are from out-of-state or elsewhere in Ohio, and the Lake Erie Birding Trail helps visitors navigate the best hotspots."

Birding along the Lake Erie coast contributes $30 million to the local economy every year, and Ohio's 1.6 million self-identified birders alone spend over three quarters of a billion dollars annually on their pursuits. The Lake Erie Birding Trail Guidebook not only makes it easier for them to spot both common and rare birds when visiting parks and preserves in northern Ohio, but it also gives birders the opportunity to point out their economic contribution to local businesses with a set of "birder calling cards" that link owners to more information.

"Every visitor to Lake Erie will consider this book an incredible resource and a must-have for their libraries," says Jeff Reutter, director of Ohio Sea Grant and Stone Lab. "We were very pleased to partner with ODNR Division of Wildlife, with funding from Wildlife, the Ohio Department of Transportation, and Ohio Sea Grant, to develop this guide."

The book itself is a companion piece to the ODNR Division of Wildlife and Ohio Sea Grant website lakeerieohiobirding.info, which showcases birding sites across the Ohio Lake Erie coastline to residents and visitors alike.

"Connecting birders to birding and other tourism amenities in local Ohio communities will not only help attract more visitors to Ohio, but will also help us provide exceptional experiences to our guests," says Melinda Huntley, executive director of the Ohio Travel Association.

The guide is available online through Ohio Sea Grant. For more information visit ohioseagrant.osu.edu/publications or contact the Ohio Sea Grant office at 614-292-8971 with questions.

More information about birding in northern Ohio and a list of recent sightings is available at lakeerieohio-birding.info.

YOU CAN COPE WITH TURBULENCE... AS A PASSENGER AND AN INVESTOR

Financial Focus by: Gabe Pollock, Edward Jones Advisor

If you're like many travelers, you get a little nervous when your airplane goes through some turbulence. And if you're like a lot of investors, you may get somewhat jumpy when the financial markets are volatile. Yet flight turbulence probably isn't as scary as it seems, and the same may be true for market volatility — if you know how to respond.

Let's look at some positive responses to market movements:

- Don't overreact to turbulence. Turbulence happens on most flights, but passengers are well aware that they can't "bail out" at 30,000 feet, so they generally don't panic. As an investor, you also need to avoid panicky behavior — by not taking a "time out" from investing. Over a period of decades, if you were to miss just a handful of the market's best-performing days, your returns could be dramatically reduced. And the best days often follow some of the worst. So if you're not invested in the market, you could miss out on the beginning of a new rally, which is typically when the biggest gains occur.

- Balance your "cargo." The ground crew properly positions an airplane's cargo to maintain the plane's center of gravity and reduce the effects of turbulence. When you invest, you also need to achieve balance by owning a variety of vehicles, including stocks, bonds, government securities and certificates of deposit. You'll want your investment mix to reflect your risk tolerance, goals and time horizon. While this type of diversification can't guarantee profits or protect against loss, it can reduce the effects of "turbulence" — that is, market volatility — on your portfolio. Over time, your "cargo" (your investments) may shift, becoming too heavy in stocks or bonds relative to your objectives. Consequently, you'll need to periodically rebalance your portfolio to ensure it's meeting your needs.

- Match your "transportation method" with your goals. If you are flying from New York to Los Angeles, you may experience delays or some changes in the flight plan — but your goal is still to reach Los Angeles as quickly and efficiently as possible. Consequently, you wouldn't scrap the idea of flying and head to the West Coast on foot. When you invest, you will also encounter events, such as market downturns, that you feel may be slowing you down in your progress toward your long-term objectives, such as a comfortable retirement. But if your objectives haven't changed, neither should your "transportation method" of reaching them. In other words, don't abandon your long-term strategy in favor of quick fixes, such as chasing after "hot" stocks that may not be suitable for your needs.

- Maintain perspective on your "flight path." When you've flown, you've probably observed (perhaps with some envy) some of your fellow passengers sleeping through periods of turbulence. In the investment world, these types of people are the ideal long-term investors — they know that turbulence, in the form of market fluctuations, is normal, because they've experienced it many times before. Their perspective isn't on short-term events, such as volatility, but rather on the voyage toward their "final destination" — i.e., the achievement of their long-term goals.

So when you fly, fasten your seatbelt and relax. And when you invest, don't overreact to short-term events. By following these basic guidelines, you will be a calmer traveler and a better investor.

PAULDING COUNTY HISTORY: NATURAL GAS & OIL IN 1887

By: Caroline Zimmerman

The theories as to the origin of petroleum and natural gas can be divided into two main groups: (1) those which are made chemically, and those which are the result of that matter acting on mineral matter, and (2) matter that acts on mineral matter as the result of a partial decomposition of vegetables of animal substances that have been stored in the earth or stone.

Either of the above theories is convincing evidence that there could be abundant supplies of both gas and oil found beneath the surface of Paulding County. This was thought MORE than a century ago. The first well drilled in the county was at Paulding, by the Paulding Oil & Gas Co. in the summer of 1887. Both gas and oil was obtained, but not in enough quantities to make it a paying position for the company. Regarding the well, the Paulding "Gazette" of July 28, 1887, said: "The suspense is over. It has been demonstrated to a certainty that gas and oil underlie the city of Paulding. At three o'clock Tuesday afternoon the long listened for cry of 'Trenton rock is Struck', was heard. It was reached at the depth of 1,473 feet and four inches. The drillers penetrated it four feet and rested for the night. On Wednesday morning work was resumed and at two o'clock in the afternoon at the depth of 16 feet in the Trenton rock and 1,489 feet and four inches from the surface, gas was discovered."

The news of the new wells traveled quickly and within minutes hundreds of our citizens rushed to the scene of the wells. The value of the corner lots went up 100% in a few hours. In the evening a jet was attached to the mouth of the well and the gas carried about 20 feet up the derrick, where it was set on fire. The flames leaped upward to the distance of about 10 feet and shed a wild, weird light around upon the scenery in the vicinity of the well.

Hundreds of people visited the grand lighting up of the well. "Down the Gas Well" was the prevailing cry of the evening. All ages of people were caught up with the excitement and enthusiasm. All types of personalities were there from schoolmarms to poets.

Sometime later — "Oil is found to filling up in the well, already to the depth of 90 feet, and it is not known which will be the predominating element — gas or oil. The drillers are closely watching the well and further developments are hourly expected. It is not yet known whether it will be necessary to 'shoot' it or not. A meeting of the stockholders will be held this afternoon."

In accordance with the decision of the stockholders, explosives were put in the well a few days after, hoping to accelerate the flow of gas, but instead of so doing, it immediately began filling with salt (silt) water. Attempts were made to remove this, but of no avail; the well was rendered useless and, therefore, abandoned.

Since the above attempt, other wells have been drilled at Melrose, Payne and Antwerp, in all of which some oil and gas (mostly oil) has been obtained. In all of these, Trenton rock has been struck at a depth of 1,400 and 1,500 feet. What is known as the Lamb well, six miles west of Paulding, has yielded the best results of any yet in the county. It was drilled in the spring of 1891, and has a reported capacity of 220 barrels of oil per day. The Home Oil and Gas Company, of Antwerp, and a company at Payne, are yet at work sinking wells, and from present developments there is but little doubt, if any, but that Paulding County will soon occupy a prominent position in the oil and gas field of Ohio."

BALLOT BOARD CERTIFIES VOTER RIGHTS AMENDMENT AS SINGLE ISSUE

The Ohio Ballot Board, chaired by Secretary of State Jon Husted, certified that a proposed constitutional amendment concerning voter rights consists of one issue.

Petitioners will now need to collect 385,247 signatures, which is equal to 10 percent of the total vote cast for governor in 2010. As part of the total number of signatures needed to place the measure on the ballot, petitioners must also have collected signatures from at least 44 of Ohio's 88 counties, and within each of those counties, collect enough signatures equal to five percent of the total vote cast for governor in the most recent gubernatorial election, 2010.

Other members of the Ballot Board include: State Senator Bill Coley; State Senator Nina Turner; Mark Griffin; and William N. Morgan. Ballot Board meetings are open to the public.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

The winter weather has greatly impacted the school year. It is difficult for students to be at their best when the routine changes constantly with 2-hour delays and cancellations. Already this school year, we have missed over 96 hours of instruction with 12 missed days and 10 additional 2-hour delays due to weather. HB 416 granted school districts an additional four calamity days, to be used after the district has made up four days. This legislation will become law upon the Governor's signature. We have missed 12 days this year and already made one up on President's Day. With this new law, our other make-up days will be May 23, 27, and 28. The last day for seniors will be May 22. We will be able to miss one more day before adding any more at the end of the year.

With so many missed days, our teachers have been working hard to cover all material required prior to the Ohio Achievement Assessments. To help some of our students prepare, we will be offering after-school tutoring in grades 3-8. If your child is targeted for extra help, you will be receiving a letter.

I hope you were able to attend the music department's production of Footloose on March 14th or 15th. The students' hard work was evident and the production was outstanding! I am amazed at the talent of our students.

The annual Hoops for Heart day was held on March 19th. The students used this opportunity to participate in friendly competition for a good cause, raising money for the American Heart Association. Thanks to all who participated and helped with the event.

The safety of our students is a constant concern. We will continue to hold drills to prepare for emergency situations like fire and severe weather. We will also be holding more lock-down drills and teaching our students the ALiCE protocol. Instant Alert will be an important method of communication for letting parents know about ALiCE drills, so please make sure your information is up to date and you have checked the box to receive HIGH IMPORTANCE messages from the school.

We are in the fourth grading period with many activities on the horizon. Our spring sport athletes are beginning their seasons. Prom preparations are ongoing for the May 3rd event at Grants Reception Hall, which begins with walk-ins at approximately 6:30. The Arts will be showcased on April 26 with the ARTS Festival, and Graduation will be on May 25. Mark your calendars with these important dates.

The poet Anne Bradstreet wrote, "If we had not winter, the spring would not be so pleasant; if we did not sometimes taste of adversity, prosperity would not be so welcome." I think spring will be magnificent after the long winter.

As always, thank you for your support of our school district.

NOTES FROM THE PRINCIPALS

MR. MANZ—ELEMENTARY

Finally, warmer weather has returned and allowed our students to get outside and enjoy the fresh air. As a reminder, the elementary dress code only permits the students to wear shorts during the months of April and May in the spring, at the parents' discretion. The weather can change drastically throughout the course of the day, so please plan clothing choices accordingly.

As we head into the final two months of the school year, we are continuing to prepare for the upcoming Ohio Achievement Assessments in grades 3-5. Grades 3-5 will be taking the reading OAA on April 29 and the math OAA on May 1. The 5th grade will be taking the science OAA on May 6. Make-up testing will be held from May 7-9 as needed. Please do not schedule vacations, doctor appointments, or other days off during this time.

The local Battle of the Books will be held at the school on April 7 at 1:00 pm. The winning team will then be competing at the county competition on April 16 at 12:30 pm at the Youth Leadership Building in Paulding.

MR. BUTE—MIDDLE/HIGH SCHOOL

As April begins, our students have entered the fourth quarter of the 2013-2014 school year. I want to emphasize the importance of our students remaining focused on their academic performance to finish the year strong. As the weather improves, our students can be distracted from completing their assignments so we must work collaboratively to keep them focused.

I continue to encourage parents to monitor their child's grades on Progressbook. It will provide you with the opportunity to access your child's grades and monitor his/her progress. If you have any questions about your child's grades, your first step is to contact the teacher. You can contact the teacher via email or by phone, but it is important you contact them with your questions. An effective line of communication between the home and school will help to strengthen your child's educational experience.

I am pleased to announce that OGT (Ohio Graduation Test) week is complete. I would like to thank the students and staff for their efforts during this stressful week. This week is mentally exhausting for the sophomores and upperclassmen who need to pass all five parts of the test to be eligible for graduation. The Spring OGT results will be available mid-May and we will distribute them when they arrive.

On the topic of standardized tests, the OAA's (Ohio Achievement Assessments) will be administered to students in grades 3-8 on April 21-May 16. It is extremely important that your child(ren) be present during the testing dates. The first three weeks will be utilized for the initial administration of the test with the week of May 12-16 used for make-up testing. This will be a very stressful time for the students, so please make sure they are getting plenty of rest and eating well-balanced meals. (6th grade-Reading & Math, 7th grade-Reading & Math, and 8th grade-Reading, Math, and Science)

Seniors: As we enter the final grading period, I encourage you to continue accessing the scholarship section on the school website. Click on the "Schools" tab then click on "Guidance" to allow you access to this section. Mrs. Rogge updates the scholarships as they are presented to the district, so check frequently for new scholarships posted.

Prom: Any junior or senior attending the prom must complete a permission form. This permission form can be picked up from Mrs. Tempel or Mrs. Vail. The permission form must be completed before you can purchase a prom ticket. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Tempel or Mrs. Vail.

ARTS FESTIVAL

Antwerp Schools will celebrate the artistic talents of its students with a spring arts festival on April 26 from 4:00-9:30. We will have visual art displays in our auxiliary gym, bands, choirs and groups will perform live onstage in the auditoria, and sandwiches and other food items will be available for purchase. All are invited to check our website for a schedule of the live performances and join us as we celebrate spring.

YEARBOOKS

Yearbooks can be ordered until the last day of school. Yearbooks for grades 6-12 are $35, and elementary yearbooks are $10. There are also a few yearbooks left from last year.

Senior ads for the yearbook are due to Mrs. Sorrell by April 4. All seniors were given an order form with details. If you need more information, please contact Mrs. Sorrell. The cost is $30 for a 1/4 page ad.

PAULDING COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEETING MINUTES 2/19/14

Tuesday, February 18, 2014:
Tom VanVlerah, Antwerp Mayor; Sara Keeran, Antwerp Village Administrator; Randy Derck, Jerry Zielke, PCED Director, Fred Pieper and Tony Zartman, Paulding County Commissioners; Joseph Burkard, Paulding County Prosecutor; Shawn Schuette, Matt Moore, Travis Lichty, Lori Hines, Tera Shull, April Litzenberg representing the Antwerp Ball Association all met at a special meeting on Tuesday evening, February 18, 2014 at the Antwerp Town Hall Council room at 7:00 p.m. The discussion began with Commissioner Zartman bringing everyone up to speed about what's going on with the Antwerp Ball fields. There will be a Sheriff sale on Thursday, March 6th at 10:00 a.m. at the Paulding County Courthouse. The original idea was to buy back the property and donate it back to Antwerp's ball association. The Commissioners are looking to the ball association to see what they would like to do with it. We are here to put a game plan together. Mayor VanVlerah asked what the ball association would be looking at for expenses. County Prosecutor, Joseph Burkard's reply was close to $12,000 that includes back taxes. The appraisal value is $48,000. If someone wants to buy the property in excess of $60,000 or the Commissioners can buy back the property up to $60,000. The association would have continued real estate taxes. Travis Lichty and Shawn Schuette agreed that they felt that the association would be able to come up with funding for the $12,000 and the continued real estate taxes. The group discussed what would be most beneficial for grant dollars if the county donated the property to the village or to the ball association. Jerry Zielke, PCED Director commented that there is an ODNR grant for $20,000 coming up for 2015. The Village Administrator, Sara Keeran and Mayor VanVlerah would look into possible future grants.

This 19th day of February, 2014, the Board of County Commissioners met in regular session with the following members present:

The Board of County Commissioners does hereby appoint Dennis Recker to replace Mike Kauser as a member of TIRC (Tax Incentive Review Committee).

IN THE MATTER OF ACCEPTING A PROPOSAL AND FEE SCHEDULE FOR FY 2014 CDBG ADMINISTRATION AND IMPLEMENTATION SERVICES:

The Board of County Commissioners does hereby accept the proposal and fee schedule as submitted by Maumee Valley Planning Organization for CDBG administration and implementation services for FY 2014.
MEETING NOTES OF APPOINTMENTS:
Dennis Miller, Maumee Valley Planning Organization - Mr. Miller met briefly with the Commissioners to review the CHIP program and its guidelines. He strongly suggested partnering with another county to maximize grant dollar award possibilities.
Lou Ann Wannemacher, County Treasurer - Ms. Wannemacher presented a report of year to date cash for 2013 (pay 2014) real estate taxes. She noted only 4% delinquencies for first half collections and 7% for entire delinquencies (past due and first half 2013). Ms. Wannemacher also reported $154,487.74 in sales tax collected in February for December, 2013, sales. This amount is up from January by $21,860.40 and also up from February, 2013, by $9,697.61.

Claudia Fickel, County Auditor - Mr. Fickel distributed the General Fund Receipts and Expenses Reports, as well as the Sales Tax Revenue report for the Commissioners' review. General Fund Receipts in January, 2014, were up from December, 2013, by $127,250.08; and was up from January, 2013, by $78,429.98. Ms. Fickel also reported dog tag sales are down by 16% from last year. She commented the Homestead Exemption applications are due June 2, 2014, adding there are new guidelines to follow. Ms. Fickel discussed the real estate fund and how the valuation has impacted it.

Gene Olwin - Mr. Olwin met briefly with the Commissioners with questions regarding the distribution of the PILOT for the wind farms. The Commissioners were able to answer his questions to his satisfaction and provided him with a breakdown of the PILOT for the wind farms. The Commissioners also thanked Mr. Olwin for his interest.

Kris Gerken and Kim Oliver, Huntington Insurance - Mr. Gerken and Ms. Oliver discussed the upcoming renewal (June 1, 2014) of the County Health Insurance plan. He anticipated Medical Mutual will make an offer by March 31. Huntington will be going out for bids from other carriers on the County's behalf. In order to do that, Mr. Gerken noted those employees who are currently covered or wish to be on the plan will need to complete medical history questionnaires, which may either be done on paper for each carrier or on Form Fire (on line). He emphasized the security provided by Form Fire, stating they follow all the federal regulations and guidelines. It is imperative that employees complete the questionnaires in a timely matter so that quotes may be secured from other carriers. Cindy Peters will work closely with Mr. Gerken and Ms. Oliver over the next couple of months to make sure the County employees are offered the best coverage for the most affordable cost.

COFFEE & DESSERT PARENT/PROFESSIONAL SAFETY TRAINING MEETING

The next Coffee & Dessert Parent/Professional Safety Training meeting is set for Tuesday, April 1, 2014 from 4:30-6:30 p.m. at the Wayne Trace Jr/Sr High School Lecture Hall.

Topic of this month's discussion is "What You Don't Know Can Hurt You: The Hidden Curriculum of Interacting with Law Enforcement and First Responders" brought by Linell Weinberg, MSW, Executive Director, Autism Society of Northwest Ohio.

Did you know that individuals with developmental disabilities, including autism, are seven times more likely to have an encounter with a police officer as compared to typical peers? If your child were to encounter a police officer while out in the community without you, would he/she know what to do or say? This presentation will provide families, and district staff who serve them, with an overview of a curriculum that was developed to provide youth and adults with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) and developmental disabilities information on how to interact with Law Enforcement and First Responders. We will present some situations that might involve an encounter with police and/or first responders and offer ways to help you prepare your child for these interactions. The presentation will include videos, useful handouts, and other freebies.

There is no cost to attend these Parent/Professional trainings. Certificate of Attendance available upon request. Pre-registration is preferred by contacting: Cathy Ruiz, parent mentor, Western Buckeye, ESC, Paulding County. Office: Payne Elementary building, 419-263-2512 (select #4 Payne Bldg.), 419-399-4711 or email Cathy at cruiz@wb.noacsc.org. The Coffee & Dessert Parent/Professional trainings are provided through the Parent Mentor Grant and Western Buckeye, ESC.
